Strange Encounter:

Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2013-02-01 Examining the relationship between strangers embodiment and community Strange Encounters challenges the assumptions that the stranger is simply anybody we do not recognize and instead proposes that he or she is socially constructed as somebody we already know Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalization on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own Extraordinary Encounters Jerome Clark, 2000-12-15 Here is the first A Z encyclopedia to explore the convictions held by many in the modern day world that extraterrestrials angels fairy folk and other dimensional intelligences regularly interact with human beings Extraordinary Encounters An Encyclopedia of Extraterrestrials and Otherworldly Beings is the first ever illustrated A Z encyclopedia to explore these fascinating modern day beliefs personalities beings and events Among the beings you ll meet in its pages are Abraham a collection of highly evolved entities that speak in one voice Metranon the divine interface between God and the Outer Worlds and sometime Old Testament angel and The Planetary Council whose members include Jove Merlin Quetzalcoatl and Lao Tzu Blake & Mortimer - Volume 12 - Atlantis Mystery Edgar P. Jacobs, 2013-03-25T00:00:00+01:00 Deep under Sao Miguel island rumoured to be the last emerging part of Atlantis Professor Mortimer has discovered samples of a mysterious radioactive metal Could it be the Atlanteans legendary orichalcum When he and his friend Blake set out on an expedition into the depths to find out sabotage occurs in the form of their old opponent Olrik And soon all three will be embroiled in a power struggle far bigger in scope than they could have imagined Mussolini's Italy Max Gallo, 2019-10-10 Originally published in 1964 this book holds the story of Italian Fascism and its leader up to the light Gallo explains how Fascism triumphed in Italy what it did to and for that country and what its heritage is for present day Italy The character of Mussolini is explored as it is interwoven with the history of the dictatorship he founded and Gallo demonstrates beyond doubt the enthusiasm with which Italian industry finance and business supported Mussolini s self styled anti capitalist movement Cinematic Encounters with Disaster Simon R. Troon, 2024-06-13 Cinematic Encounters with Disaster takes Hollywood s disaster movies and their codified versions of natural disaster post apocalyptic survival and extra terrestrial threat as the starting point for an analytical trajectory that works toward new understandings of how cinema shapes and informs our conceptions of disaster and catastrophe It examines a range of films from distinct regional and industrial contexts Hollywood indie movies different kinds of documentaries from the US and elsewhere and auteurist realist cinema from Europe and Asia Moving across and beyond critical and industrial categories that often inform thinking about cinema this book contends that different approaches to film style can push us to imagine disaster in distinct ways with distinct ethical connotations Framed by contemporary concerns around the global climate crisis and the advent of the Anthropocene questions about how films can best offer responses to historical exigency guide the book's explorations of spectacular 2010s blockbusters like Gravity 2013 and San Andreas 2015 environmental documentaries including the paradigmatic An Inconvenient Truth 2006 post disaster films by auteurs including Abbas Kiarostami and Lav Diaz and more Conceiving of disaster as intersubjective ethics between humans and nonhuman alterity forces of nature errant technology monsters ghosts and other entities it analyses how formal techniques and narrative strategies render encounters in which human protagonists are confronted with the threat of death and respond in ways that can be instructive for our planet's present juncture

The Politics of Dementia Irmela Marei Krüger-Fürhoff, Nina Schmidt, Sue Vice, 2021-11-22 Memory loss is not always viewed purely as a contingent neurobiological process present in an ageing population rather it is frequently related to larger societal issues and political debates This edited volume examines how different media and genres novels auto biographical writings documentary as well as fictional films and graphic memoirs represent dementia for the sake of critical explorations of memory trauma and contested truths In ten analytical chapters and one piece of graphic art the contributors examine the ways in which what might seem to be the individual ahistorical diseases of dementia are used in contemporary cultural texts to represent and respond to violent historical and political events ranging from the Holocaust to postcolonial conditions all of which can prove difficult to remember Combining approaches from literary studies with insights from memory studies trauma studies anthropology the critical medical humanities and media film and comics studies this volume explores the politics of dementia and incites new debates on cultures of remembrance while remaining attentive to the lived reality of dementia

Identified Flying Objects Dr. Michael P. Masters, 2019-03-22 Could UFOs and Aliens simply be us but from the future This provocative new book cautiously examines the premise that extraterrestrials may instead be our distant human descendants using the anthropological tool of time travel to visit and study us in their own hominin evolutionary past Dr Michael P Masters a professor of biological anthropology specializing in human evolutionary anatomy archaeology and biomedicine explores how the persistence of long term biological and cultural trends in human evolution may ultimately result in us becoming the ones piloting these disc shaped craft which are likely the very devices that allow our future progeny to venture backward across the landscape of time Moreover these extraterrestrials are ubiquitously described as bipedal large brained hairless human like beings who communicate with us in our own languages and who possess technology advanced beyond but clearly built upon our own These accounts coupled with a thorough understanding of the past and modern human condition point to the continuation of established biological and cultural trends here on Earth long into the distant human future

Lived Experiences and Social Transformations CL Wren Radford, 2022-03-07 Practices of sharing marginalised lived experiences are framed as providing insight into injustices yet social inequalities influence whose experiences and whose interpretations of these experiences are seen as valid Lived Experiences and Social Transformations analyses academic and activist encounters with lived experiences arguing that these practices reinforce or disrupt power relations Through the example of UK activists sharing their experiences of poverty Wren Radford advocates for collaborative interventions that emphasise the critical creative knowledges enmeshed in marginalised experiences The book compellingly enacts this approach to practical theology rooted in concrete issues and argued through poetic writing artwork and interdisciplinary sources Making Game Peter L.
