Stranger In The Forest On Foot Across Borneo:

Stranger in the Forest Eric Hansen, 1993 Bradt Travel Guide - Borneo Tamara Thiessen, 2008 Borneo's biodiversity is among the richest in the world. The first guide to focus on Malaysian Borneo and Brunei, this book gives full details on where and how to see the island's colourful flora and fauna. Tropical rainforest and rivers cover over 70% of Malaysian Borneo and this lush habitat is home to hundreds of unique species from the jelly green snake and bearded pig to the proboscis monkey. Trek through one of the region's national parks or catch a glimpse of an orang utan. Traditional rural lifestyles, tribal influences and ethnic variety also offer the visitor a rewarding cultural experience. Take part in island festivities, spend the night in a longhouse or shop in the bustling markets. Borneo can provide for adventure travellers, divers and even sunbathers. Over 27 000 UK visitors travelled to Borneo in 2007, up 10% on the previous year. Borneo Tamara Thiessen, 2016-01-05 From the steamy highlands and sapphire watered islands of Sabah and Sarawak to the mesmerising mosques and mysticism of the Sultanate of Brunei, the island of Borneo is a wonder world of colourful tribal cultures, exotic rainforest creatures. Straddling the Equator and swept in by various Seas and Straits, it is home to the orang utan, long nosed beer bellied proboscis monkeys and otherworldly carnivorous plants straight out of Lord of the Rings. The latest edition of the Bradt Travel Guide to Borneo provides fully updated insider information for touring the island including regional capitals, rural outposts and National Parks. Outside Books Points Unknown David Roberts, 2002-11-26 From Robert Falcon Scott's final journal entry to Jon Krakauer's reckless solo climb of the Devil's Thumb, Roberts and the editors of Outside have gathered the most enduring adventure literature of the century into one heart stopping volume. By turns charming and tragic, whimsical and nerve racking, this extraordinary collection gets to the heart of why adventure stories enthral us. It includes works by Sebastian Junger, Jon Krakauer, Edward Abbey, Tim Cahill, Edward Hoagland, Ernest Shackleton, Freya Stark and Wilfred Thesiger. Getting Out Alive Williams, Scott Williams, 2011-03 This book presents 13 highly engaging accounts of people surviving catastrophic situations. The stories are fiction, but the life threatening scenarios are all based on true stories of miraculous survival. Along the way, readers learn the real life skills they would need to get out alive if it happened to them. Forgiving the Boundaries Terry Caesar, 1995 Caesar attempts to historicize the sustaining interplay between romanticism and travel writing but also emphasizes that his understanding of American travel writing has more to do with narrative form, epistemology and cultural inheritance than particular historical shapings. Bad Trips Keith Fraser, 2011-06-08 The entries in this collection take us to the farthest extremes of travel with tales of danger, disorientation and bemused discomfort. Combines reportage, fiction and poetry representing some of the best known writers of our time. The Adrenaline Junkie's Bucket List Christopher Van Tilburg, 2013-07-16 The Adrenaline Junkie's Bucket List provides a heart stopping and essential guide to the best extreme outdoor adventures on every continent.
