Strangers To Ourselves Discovering The Adaptive Unconscious:

Strangers to Ourselves Timothy D. Wilson, 2002 Is introspection the best path to self knowledge What are we trying to discover In a tour of the unconscious as contemporary psychological science has redefined it Timothy D Wilson introduces a hidden mental world of judgements feelings and motives that introspection may never show Global Books in Print

Readings About The Social Animal Elliot Aronson, 2003-08-22 Organized to illustrate the major themes of Elliot Aronson's The Social Animal this collection of classic and contemporary readings explores the most important ideas issues and debates in social psychology today Undoing Whiteness in the Classroom Virginia Lea, Erma Jean Sims, 2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse for the initiated Skinny Bits Lynne Henderson Marks, 2006-04 This must have handbook by an image veteran gives tried and tested secrets and well honed tips to develop a successful image business The book combines short articles quotes and words of marketing wisdom for an easy fun and fascinating roadmap to success The Management of Loss Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries, 2025-11-06 Loss is experienced in many forms from the death of a loved one illness and job loss to the emotional turmoil surrounding retirement divorce separation or even the quiet ache of boredom and loneliness World renowned leadership scholar psychoanalyst social psychologist and executive coach Manfred Kets de Vries explores how we can navigate loss in both life and work A pioneer in the field of clinical and psychodynamic systemic executive coaching Manfred examines a wide spectrum of losses some obvious others more subtle shedding light on how we respond to them Some people fight against loss denying its reality at all costs Others may become consumed by grief For some work becomes a coping mechanism a way to manage the existential anxiety that stems from life's impermanence In such cases manic work habits can become a distraction an escape from confronting painful truths Written in an accessible and conversational style as if speaking with a group of friends this book offers deeply human insights brought to life through personal anecdotes case studies and illustrative vignettes Manfred encourages readers to face their inner struggles without falling back on primitive defense mechanisms like splitting projection or denial He guides us in reflecting on the consequences of our choices past and future so we may recognize our limitations embrace our potential and find meaning amid loss An essential read for anyone grappling with loss this book is especially valuable for executives executive coaches consultants self help enthusiasts and well being practitioners The Executive and the Elephant Richard L. Daft, 2010-08-02 Lessons for leaders on resolving the ongoing struggle between instinct and the creative mind Kings heads of government and corporate executives lead thousands of people and manage endless resources but may not have mastery over themselves Often leaders know that right action is important but have little if any understanding of what prevents them from acting in accordance with their intentions In this important book leadership expert Richard Daft portrays this dilemma as a struggle between instinct elephant and intention the executive using the most current research on the intentional vs the habitual mind to explain how this phenomenon occurs Based on current research and real life examples Offers leaders a method for directing themselves more productively Written by an expert in leadership organizational performance and change management Through real life examples and recent studies in psychology management and Eastern spirituality Daft provides guidance to all of us who struggle finding our own balance and cultivating the behavior of others The Best in Us Cleve W. Stevens, 2012-07-02 In our hyper connected world of instant information and democratic openness companies that continue to neglect their community are poised for failure Hope for a healthy economy can be found in the untapped talent of our people and in a commitment to excellence as the means for awakening that talent In The Best in Us leadership expert and social ethicist Dr Cleve Stevens offers a daring and radical new take on leading that emphasizes the rigorous development of leaders and followers The new approach called transforming integrative leadership or simply transformative leadership is a compelling highly effective step by step process Dr Stevens shows what the transformative organization looks like and how the intended growth for the individual the organization and the bottom line is achieved The Neural Sublime Alan Richardson, 2010-06-15 Winner 2011 Alpha Sigma Nu Book Award in Literature and Fine Arts The Neural Sublime brings recent work in cognitive neuroscience to bear on some famously vexed issues in British Romantic studies In exciting and unprecedented ways Alan Richardson demonstrates how developments in the neurosciences can transform the study of literary history Richardson presents six exemplary studies each exploring a different intersection of Romanticism and the sciences of the mind and brain the experience of the sublime and the neuroscience of illusion the Romantic imagination and visual imaging the figure of apostrophe and linguistic theory fictional representations of the mind and theory of mind theory depictions of sibling incest and neo Darwinian theories of mental behavior and representations of female speech and cognitive developmental psychology Richardson s insightful analysis opens fresh perspectives on British Romanticism pointing scholars to new developments in cognitive literary studies He combines elements of new historicist analysis with original and much needed models for understanding language subjectivity and social behavior Far from signaling a departure from the prevalent critical approaches of new historicism Richardson argues cognitive theory presents an essential complement to them The Neural Sublime features an array of cognitive and neuroscientific approaches providing an engaging and readable introduction to the emergent field of cognitive literary studies The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Literary Studies Lisa Zunshine, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Cognitive Literary Studies applies developments in cognitive science to a wide range of literary texts that span multiple historical periods and numerous national literary traditions

The Pause Principle Kevin Cashman, 2012-09-24 We live and lead in an increasingly volatile uncertain complex and ambiguous world But paradoxically Kevin Cashman contends that leaders today must not merely act more quickly but pause more deeply He details a catalytic process to guide you to step back in order to lead forward in three critical growth areas personal leadership development of others and fostering of cultures of innovation You and your organization will learn to move from management speed and transaction to leadership significance and transformation
