over 25 years of working with people and attempting to help them as a psychotherapist trainer and teacher I have not only walked through the joys and struggles of my own life experiences and those of family and friends but I have had the benefits and privilege of learning and living vicariously while listening to untold hours with literally thousands of clients during their own struggling and searching I have been encouraged by and privileged to watch the healing growth and transcendence from life s struggles of thousands of people and I have felt pain and sadness in witnessing the deterioration resistance and self destruction of countless others I have come to believe that the primary determining factor of whether one experiences transcendence or deterioration is a determined willingness to go through the struggles and to develop an attitude that looks courageously into the eye of the storm and says assuredly You will not break me These poems are captured moments of my own experiences and reflections on the journeys of others as we have separately and together enjoyed the sunrises and sunsets while sometimes weathering the storms in between May these poems help you better understand yourself and your fellow travelers and no matter how difficult or deep your own abyss of darkness may you always find Hope THE RHYTHM OF LIFE Today could not have been Without yesterday s haunting wind Blowing by and changing my life Stirring up realities and other sundry strife The happenings of this hour Would rightfully have no power Without the joys and pains of past Shaping and creating me at last Had even one conversation been altered Or one person or event faltered This moment in which I now breathe Would not now be as is conceived There is a Great Choreographer somewhere someplace Who orchestrates my moves and your every pace Matching our steps in infinite perfect time Then this dance once confusing starts to rhyme
