The Internet For The Older Generation Bp:

Services for young people Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Education Committee, 2011-06-23 In this report the Education Committee warns that extending the National Citizen Service NCS offer to all 600 000 16 year olds could have a price tag in excess of 350 million each year even if only 50% of young people take part This would make it more costly than the entirety of youth services currently provided by local authorities Instead the Committee calls for the NCS to be retained but become a form of accreditation for existing schemes which meet the Government s objectives The report criticises the Government s failure yet to outline a youth policy or strategic vision for the sector It says that youth services are suffering disproportionate cuts and that the Government should be prepared to take action to ensure that local authorities meet their statutory obligations The Committee finds that evidence on the effectiveness of youth services is lacking and calls for more effort by government and service providers to help guide local authorities on where best to spend scarce resources Youth services cannot be immune from public spending cuts and the sector must make better use of non public forms of funding including charitable philanthropic and private sources Technological innovations to address social isolation and loneliness in older adults Sue Ellen Levkoff, Marcia G. Ory, Hongtu Chen, Helianthe Kort, 2022-12-22 HeartMemo , 1997

The Art and Science of Personalising Care with Older People with Diabetes Trisha Dunning, 2018-08-06 This unique book is intended for all health professionals caring for older people with diabetes such as specialist and general nurses doctors primary care practitioners and dietiticians Although there is an increasing body of work about personalised care no publications were identified that encompass the focus and scope of the proposed book The global population is ageing and increasing age is a key risk factor for diabetes Older people with diabetes are often vulnerable have complex care needs and often have cognitive changes which makes personalising care challenging for health professionals Thus this is an internationally relevant book filling a gap in the current literature This is a practical and updated book that will use an engaging and easy to read narrative style It challenges readers to reflect in and on their practice It encompasses people with diabetes and authors stories which are known to have a special interest to readers make it easier to apply the information to practice enhance learning and hence the relevance and value of the book It is relevant to advocacy organisations as well as managers and service planners Researchers and scientists may find relevant information on grant and ethics applications research protocols plain language statements for potential participants and operationalising research protocols

Community Mental Health for Older People Gerard Byrne, Christine Neville, 2010 Community Mental Health for Older People is the perfect resource for mental health workers as it discusses the ageing population within the context of community mental health It provides a comprehensive overview of the important issues and clinical practices that influence mental health care for older people Written from a multidisciplinary perspective it is suitable for all health workers in community mental health teams Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health workers clinical psychologists consumer representatives medical practitioners occupational therapists registered nurses social workers etc as it incorporates the use of case studies to aid in the application of evidence based practice Multidisciplinary approach serves to illustrate the breadth and context of mental issues for older people Chapters are topical and relevant discussing issues such as service provision cultural and rural issues major disorders and interventions as well as ethical and legal issues Vignettes are included throughout the clinical chapters and serve to illustrate real cases derived from practice Evidence based practice is a key element to this pivotal new text as it highlights the best method of practise in a clear and accessible manner Highly readable style without the bulkiness of excessive references The Encyclopedia of Elder Care Eugenia L. Siegler,Elizabeth Capezuti,Mathy D.

Mezey,2007-10-25 Focusing on the broad but practical notions of how to care for the patient The Encyclopedia of Elder Care a state of the art resource features nearly 300 articles written by experts in the field Multidisciplinary by nature all aspects of clinical care of the elderly are addressed Coverage includes acute and chronic disease home care including family based care provisions nursing home care rehabilitation health promotion disease prevention education case management social services assisted living advance directives palliative care and much more Each article concludes with specialty web site listings to help direct the reader to further resources Features new to this second edition More extensive use of on line resources for further information on topics Thoroughly updated entries and references Inclusion of current research in geriatrics reflecting evidence based practice New topics including Assisted Living Nursing Home Managed Care Self Neglect Environmental Modifications Home Institution Technology Neuropsychological Assessment Psychoactive Medications Pain Acute and Chronic Still the only reference of it kind The Encyclopedia of Elder Care will prove to be an indispensable tool for all professionals in the field of aging such as nurses physicians social workers counselors health administrators and more

Fostering Independence, Participation, and Healthy Aging Through Technology National Research Council,Institute of Medicine,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Board on Health Sciences Policy,Forum on Aging, Disability, and Independence,2013-08-19 The Institute of Medicine IOM and the National Research Council NRC have had prominent roles in discussions of aging disability and technology for decades In 1978 Aging and Medical Education IOM 1978 raised national awareness of the challenges to physicians posed by the aging of the U S population Thirty years later Retooling for an Aging America highlighted concerns for the entire health care workforce in view of the aging of the population including the role of technology in caring for older populations The 1988 report The Aging Population in the 21st Century examined social economic and demographic changes among older adults as well as many health related topics health promotion and disease prevention quality of life health care system financing and use and the quality of care especially long term care In 1991 the landmark report Disability in America laid out a national agenda to prevent disability and improve the lives of people with disabling conditions The 1997 report Enabling America Assessing the Role of Rehabilitation Science and Engineering examined the knowledge base of rehabilitation science and engineering and proposed ways to translate scientific findings into interventions that produce better health And the 2007 report The Future of Disability in America examined progress made since the earlier reports and looked at continuing barriers that limit the independence productivity and participation in community life of people with disabilities All these reports were produced by committees appointed in accordance with guidelines of the National Academies and met multiples times to compile and review evidence reach consensus on conclusions and recommendations draft a report of the committee and then modify that draft report in response to comments from outside reviewers The IOM and NRC have also held several workshops related to aging disability and technology and published summary reports such as Technology for Adaptive Aging and Grand Challenges of Our Aging Society The IOM and NRC also convene groups that take a different approach to issues of pressing national and international importance Often known as forums or roundtables these groups meet regularly to foster dialogue and confront issues of mutual interest and concern among a broad range of stakeholders They can convene workshops initiate cooperative projects among members commission independently authored articles and generate ideas for independent consensus studies In 2012 the IOM and NRC joined together to establish the Forum on Aging Disability and Independence to provide a neutral venue for broad ranging discussions among the many stakeholders involved with aging and disability The goals of the forum are to highlight areas in which the coordination of the aging and disability networks is strong examine the challenges involved in aligning the aging and disability networks explore new approaches for resolving problem areas elevate the visibility and broaden the perspectives of stakeholders and set the stage for future policy actions Forum sponsors and members include federal agencies health professional associations private sector businesses academics and consumers

Fostering Independence Participation and Healthy Aging Through Technology summarizes this workshop Aging, Society and the Life Course Leslie A. Morgan, 2007 As our aging population grows ever larger it is increasingly important to understand how adults age and what we can do to provide up to date care to ensure their well being as an integral part of society Leslie Morgan and Suzanne Kunkel understand that this phenomenon is about much more than just the physical or biological aspects of growing older and have put together a comprehensive text on the impact of society and sociology on the aging process Use this text to explore the diversity of the aging population and dispel the major stereotypes surrounding the elderly Learn about aging through all the layers of social context from family life to politics and economics And through this approach come to see how aging is more than just an individual process it is a process that effects the direction of our society as a whole For the Student Web sites of interest and key terms defined at the end of each chapter Real life stories and essays on love sex music medicine and crime For the Professor Assignment ready reading in a One Chapter a Week format Questions for discussion and review at each chapter end Applying Theory sections place the lesson of each chapter in a clear real world setting Instructor s Guide Now Available An Instructor s Manual for this textbook is available for those professors who have adopted Aging Society and the Life Course Third Edition and can verify a bookstore order of 7 or more copies
