Jones,1969 Music in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity John Arthur Smith,2016-04-29 In Music in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity John Arthur Smith presents the first full length study of music among the ancient Israelites the ancient Jews and the early Christians in the Mediterranean lands during the period from 1000 BCE to 400 CE He considers the physical religious and social setting of the music and how the music was performed The extent to which early Christian music may have retained elements of the musical tradition of Judaism is also considered After reviewing the subject

s historical setting and describing the main sources the author discusses music at the Jerusalem Temple and in a variety of spheres of Jewish life away from it His subsequent discussion of early Christian music covers music in private devotion monasticism the Eucharist and gnostic literature He concludes with an examination of the question of the relationship between Jewish and early Christian music and a consideration of the musical environments that are likely to have influenced the formation of the earliest Christian chant The scant remains of notated music from the period are discussed and placed in their respective contexts The numerous sources that are the foundation of the book are evaluated objectively and critically in the light of modern scholarship Due attention is given to where their limitations lie and to what they cannot tell us as well as to what they can The book serves as a reliable introduction as well as being an invaluable guide through one of the most complex periods of music history

Fletcher-Louis, 2023-11-21 The fruit of a decade's research this volume offers a new interpretation of the dense Christological narrative in Philippians 2:6-11 taking inspiration from recent advances in our understanding of the letter's Greek and Roman setting and from insights made possible by recently created linguistic databases such as TLG and PHI The passage's praise of Christ engages the language of Hellenistic ruler cults Platonic metaphysics and moral philosophy popular Homeric beliefs about the gods and Greek love eros to articulate a scripturally grounded theology in which God is revealed to be one in two persons God the Father and LORD Jesus Christ The volume also explores hitherto unseen ways in which the central Christ Hymn is tightly connected to the rest of Paul's argument The hymn presents Christ as an epitome of the ideals of Greek and Roman virtue to support Paul's summoning his readers to a life of praiseworthy and exemplary civic conduct in 1:27 New or recently proposed translations are advanced for numerous words and phrases in e.g. 1:8 11:27 2:3 4:6 11:3 2:4 and a new non Stendahl approach to Paul's boasting in 3:4 6 that is Christological rather than biographical is put forward
