J. Mackenzie Pierce

The Jews Of Poznan The Library Of Holocaust Testimonies:

The Jews of Poznań Zbigniew Pakuła, 2003 The Jews of Poznań Zbigniew Pakuła, 2003 The Holocaust swept away the centuries old Jewish community of Pozna in western Poland Zbigniew Pakula traces the history of that community its institutions and its response to crucial but little known events like the expulsion of Polish Jews from Germany in 1938 The Jews of Pozna however is not only about destruction but also about survival and the way that the memory of a lost world can endure as a cornerstone of individual identity Pakula locates the remaining Jews of Pozna now living scattered around the world He accompanies them as they reminisce meet old friends or return to walk again the streets of what will always be their city The Polish Review ,2003 Sounds of Survival J. Mackenzie Pierce, 2005 Sounds of Survival tells a story of unexpected musical continuity across some of the twentieth century s most cataclysmic events It examines an integrated Polish Jewish musical community as its members contended with antisemitism in the 1930s were persecuted during the Nazi occupation and attempted to establish a renewed musical culture from the ashes of World War II and the Holocaust Attending to these musicians from the 1920s into the 1950s the book is a rigorous examination of Jewishness within twentieth century Polish classical music and the first to examine how the Holocaust was a defining event for the country s musical culture J Mackenzie Pierce argues that despite the nearly unimaginable violence experienced by these musicians many of their projects and ideals were reinvented and preserved across war and genocide Thus he rejects the common assumption that World War II and the Holocaust were epoch defining ruptures in Polish Jewish and European culture instead showing that the midcentury was a period of fervent reinvention and cultural development in response to trauma A Warsaw Diary, 1939-1945 Michael Zylberberg, 2005 A story of one of the few survivors of the Warsaw Ghetto and of an underground existence in the non Jewish part of the city during the Second World War Based entirely on the author s original diary rediscovered twenty years after the war Michael Zylberberg tells of the ghetto uprising and the Polish uprising of General Bor Komorowski of the moral conflicts of the Poles who helped the Jews and those who betrayed them There is valuable historical detail never before revealed as in the chapters on the educationalist and martyr Janusz Korczak and tales of the author s last minute escapes and desperate games of bluff when he posed as a Catholic and a Polish Officer In the Shadow of Destruction Yosef Govrin, 2007 Only 10 when his homeland was cut off from Romania and annexed by the Soviet Union the author was then transported to the ghettos and extermination camps of Transnistria before being released by the Red Army in 1944 He was arrested as an illegal immigrant in Israel before being accepted as a resident This is his story

By a Twist of History Mietek Sieradzki, 2002 In a twist of historical circumstances and due to what he later saw as misguided beliefs he joined the Polish foreign service and was posted in Moscow London where he also graduated from London University Korea Cambodia and Canada in the latter two countries as head of mission This part of By a Twist of History includes the dramatic history of the Polish art treasures spirited out of Nazi occupied Poland and kept for many years in Canada Their return to Poland during his term of office was the highlight of his career The book then describes his work at a fairly senior level in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Warsaw where he dealt with English speaking countries Year Book Leo Baeck Institute,2004 A Life Sentence of Memories Issy Hahn,2001 Memoirs of a Jew born in Konin Poland in 1927 Describes the German occupation in 1939 after which the family was deported to the ghetto of Ostrowiec Swietokrzyski In late 1940 Hahn s parents sister and one brother were deported to Treblinka and killed Hahn and another brother escaped from the ghetto but were eventually caught and sent to work in a nearby factory In summer 1942 they were sent to Auschwitz from which they escaped for a short time then to the Jaworzno labor camp on a death march to Blechhammer from there to the Litomerice labor camp and then on a death transport to Landeshut where they were liberated The brothers emigrated to England in 1946 From the Edge of the World Anne Joseph,2003 From the Edge of the World is an anthology of largely unpublished work written by Jewish refugees who came to the UK in the 1930s fleeing from the threat of Nazism The idea for this collection was inspired by the story that the author s grandmother herself a refugee had written entitled The Portrait The anthology is of a highly personal nature It brings together writings by ordinary people who describe their day to day experiences of living under the Nazi regime or recount their impressions of their new life in England They describe the trauma of living in Nazi occupied Germany and how events affected everyday living whilst worrying about events elsewhere
