The Keepers Of The Trail:

The Keepers of the Trail (Illustrated) Joseph A. Altsheler, 2014-03-13 A light wind blew over the great primeval wilderness of Kentucky the dense green foliage rippling under it like the waves of the sea In every direction forest and canebrake stretched in countless miles the trees infinite in variety and great in size showing that Nature had worked here with the hand of a master Little streams flashing in silver or gold in the sunlight flowed down to the greater rivers and on a bush a scarlet tanager fluttered like a flash of flame A youth uncommon in size and bearing stepped into a little opening and looked about with the easy natural caution belonging to the native of the forest who knows that danger is always near His eyes pierced the foliage and would have noticed anything unusual there his ear was so keen that he would have heard at once any sound not a part of the woods Eye and ear and the indefinable powers of primitive man told him no enemy was at hand and he stood on the green hill breathing the fresh crisp air with a delight that only such as he could feel Mighty was the wilderness majestic in its sweep and depth of color and the lone human figure fitted into it perfectly adding to it the last and finishing touch Keepers of the Trail , 2018-06-22
