Step Across This Line Collected Nonfiction 1992 :

Step Across This Line Salman Rushdie, 2010-11-05 From one of the great novelists of our day a vital brilliant new book of essays speeches and articles essential for our times Step Across This Line showcases the other side of one of fiction's most astonishing conjurors On display is Salman Rushdie's incisive thoughtful and generous mind in prose that is as entertaining as it is topical The world is here captured in pieces on a dazzling array of subjects from New York's Amadou Diallo case to the Wizard of Oz from U2 to fifty years of Indian writing from a tribute to Angela Carter to the struggle to film Midnight's Children The title essay was originally delivered at Yale as the 2002 Tanner lecture on human values and examines the changing meaning of frontiers in the modern world moral and metaphorical frontiers as well as physical ones The collection chronicles Rushdie's intellectual journeys but it is also an intimate invitation into his life he explores his relationship to India through a moving diary of his first visit there in over a decade A Dream of Glorious Return Step Across This Line also includes Messages From the Plague Years a historic set of letters articles and reflections on life under the fatwa Gathered together for the first time this is Rushdie's humane intelligent and angry response to a grotesque threat aimed not just at him but at free expression itself Step Across This Line Salman Rushdie's first collection of non fiction in a decade has the same energy imagination and erudition as his astounding novels along with some very strong opinions Step Across this Line

Salman Rushdie, 2002 The subjects of Salman Rushdie's new collection of non fiction range from The Wizard of Oz U2 India and Indian writing the death of Princess Diana and football to twentieth century writers including Angela Carter Arthur Miller Edward Said J M Coetzee and Arundhati Roy In a central section Messages from the Plague Years Rushdie focuses on the fight against the Iranian fatwa presenting texts both personal and political which show for the first time how it was to live through those days Rushdie's columns for the New York Times confront current issues Kashmir Northern Ireland Kosovo Islam and the West as well as lighter topics such as reality TV sport and sleaze The book ends with the lectures that give it its tide Rushdie's exploration of the theme of frontiers crossing them breaking taboos and in the light of September 11 the world of permeable frontiers in which we all live Theatre of the Borderlands

Iani del Rosario Moreno, 2015-05-27 Theatre of the Borderlands Conflict Violence and Healing is an enlightening and encompassing study that focuses on how dramatists from the Northern Mexico border territories write about theater The plays analyzed in this study are representative of the most important Northern Border playwrights whose plays themes present the US Mexico Borderlands in a socio historical and political context The most important themes observed include topics that engage in discussions of the indigenous Border crossings heroes and folk saints the city of Tijuana and violence in the Borderlands to name a few These themes have led to the birth of the Teatro del Norte movement a group of determined playwrights insistent on presenting dramaturgical themes that show the bond between their particular geographies histories socio political and economic situations thereby giving birth to an original voice and new aesthetic of representation Dealing with the topics already mentioned and pairing them with more timely ones like immigration reform namely this study can serve as an invaluable resource to many interdisciplinary academic settings and can grant an eye opening insight to Border relations through several critical readings

Cosmopolitical Claims B. Venkat Mani, 2007-04 When both France and Holland rejected the proposed constitution for the European Union in 2005 the votes reflected popular anxieties about the entry of Turkey into the European Union as much as they did ambivalence over ceding national sovereignty Indeed the votes in France and Holland echoed long standing tensions between Europe and Turkey If there was any question that tensions were high the explosive reaction of Europe's Muslim population to a series of cartoons of Mohammed in a Danish newspaper put them to rest Cosmopolitical Claims is a profoundly original study of the works of Sten Nadolny Emine Sevgi Zdamar Feridun Zaimoglu and 2006 Nobel prize in literature recipient Orhan Pamuk Rather than using the proverbial hyphen in Turkish German to indicate a culture caught between two nations Venkat Mani is interested in how Turkish German literature engages in a scrutiny of German and Turkish national identity Moving deftly from the theoretical literature to the texts themselves Mani's groundbreaking study explores these conflicts and dialogues and the resulting cultural hybridization as they are expressed in four novels that document the complexity of Turkish German cultural interactions in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries His innovative readings will engage students of contemporary German literature as well as illuminate the discussion of minority literature in a multicultural setting As Salman Rushdie said in the 2002 Tanner Lecture at Yale The frontier is an elusive line visible and invisible physical and metaphorical amoral and moral To cross a frontier is to be transformed It is in this vein that Mani's dynamic and subtle work posits a still evolving discourse between Turkish and German writers Transformative Fictions Daniel Just, 2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students Postcolonial Artists and Global Aesthetics Akinwumi

Adesokan,2011-10-21 What happens when social and political processes such as globalization shape cultural production Drawing on a range of writers and filmmakers from Africa and elsewhere Akin Adesokan explores the forces at work in the production and circulation of culture in a globalized world He tackles problems such as artistic representation in the era of decolonization the uneven development of aesthetics across the world and the impact of location and commodity culture on genres with a distinctive approach that exposes the global processes transforming cultural forms The Routledge

Handbook of Translation and Migration Brigid Maher,Loredana Polezzi,Rita Wilson,2024-09-06 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Migration explores the practices and attitudes surrounding migration and translation aiming to redefine these two terms in light of their intersections and connections The volume adopts an interdisciplinary and transnational perspective highlighting the broad scope of migration and translation as not only linguistic and geographical phenomena but also cultural social artistic and psychological processes The nexus between migration and translation the central concern of this Handbook challenges limited conceptualisations of identity and belonging thereby also exposing the limitations of monolingual monocultural models of nationhood Through a diverse range of approaches and methodologies individual chapters investigate specific historical circumstances and illustrate the need for an intersectional approach to questions of language access and language mediation With its range of approaches and case studies the volume highlights the inherently political nature of translation and its potential to shape social and cultural inclusion emphasising the crucial role of language and translation in informing professional practices institutional policies educational approaches and community attitudes towards migration By bringing together perspectives from both researchers and creative practitioners this book makes an innovative contribution to ongoing global discussions on linguistic hospitality and diversity ideal for those pursuing postgraduate and doctoral studies in translation studies linguistics international studies and cultural studies Books

Without Borders, Volume 2 R. Fraser,M. Hammond,2008-07-10 This volume focuses on the publisher s series as a cultural formation a material artifact and component of cultural hierarchies Contributors engage with archival research cultural theory literary and bibliometric analysis amongst a range of other approaches to contextualize the publisher s series in terms of its cultural and economic work Postcolonial Readings of Music in World Literature Cameron Fae Bushnell,2013

This book reads representations of Western music in literary texts to reveal the ways in which artifacts of imperial culture function within contemporary world literature Bushnell argues that Western music s conventions for performance composition and listening established during the colonial period persist in postcolonial thought and practice Music from the Baroque Classical and Romantic periods Bach through Brahms coincides with the rise of colonialism and Western music contains imperial attitudes and values embedded within its conventions standards and rules The book focuses on the culture of classical music as reflected in the worlds of characters and texts and contends that its effects outlast the historical significance of the real composers pieces styles and forms Through examples by authors such as McEwan Vikram Seth

Bernard MacLaver, Chang-rae Lee and J M Coetzee the book demonstrates how Western music enters narrative as both acts of history and as structures of analogy that suggest subject positions human relations and political activity that in turn describes a postcolonial condition The uses to which Western music is put in each literary text reveals how European art music of the seventeenth through the nineteenth centuries is read and misread by postcolonial generations exposing mostly hidden cultural structures that influence our contemporary understandings of social relations and hierarchies norms for resolution and for assigning significance and standards of propriety The book presents strategies for thinking anew about the persistence of cultural imperialism reading Western music simultaneously as representative of imperial cultural dominance and as suggestive of resistant structures forms and practices that challenge the imperial hegemony Digital Literary

Creative Practice David Thomas Henry Wright, 2025-05-30 In 1985 Italo Calvino proposed six values he deemed crucial to literature as it moved into the next millennium lightness quickness crystal exactitude visibility multiplicity and consistency Using Italo Calvino's Six Memos for the Next Millennium as structure and methodology this book conjoins literary studies with creative practice to interrogate extend subvert and then reflect on the aesthetic and structural ambitions of multiple innovative print authors Italo Calvino Zadie Smith William Faulkner Virginia Woolf Bernardine Evaristo Roberto Bolaño Rachel Cusk Shahriar Mandanipour W G Sebald Ross Gibson Han Kang and J M Coetzee reimaged in new media in order to develop a model for digital literary practice led research This work contains four strands that are presented simultaneously First this monograph explores the rise of Calvino's values within the Calvino corpus Second this value's application to a contemporary literary predicament is explored through a digression Third conclusions from this interrogation are drawn as they relate to digital literary culture Finally the value's importance is demonstrated through examining reflecting on contemporary digital literary creative practice both the author's own and works created by contemporary writers artists who have engaged with the digital postmodern Reading the Margins

Michael J Gilmour, 2024-09-24 The Bible and theology are contested spaces battlegrounds where participants guard entrenched beliefs against perceived threats But literature observes novelist Salman Rushdie opens the universe It expands what we perceive and understand and ultimately what we are Writers make our world feel larger and more inclusive When other forces push in the direction of narrowness bigotry tribalism cultism and war fiction encourages understanding sympathy and identification with others Reading the Margins invites readers to immerse themselves in imaginary worlds and to pursue visions of justice and compassion Whether stories about poverty empire war or the environment the writers considered raise moral questions and often in the process even unwittingly deepen our understanding of biblical calls for kindness and mercy Reading the Margins offers a kind of commentary on biblical ethics Using Matthew's Beatitudes and sheep and goats parable as an organizing principle Gilmour argues there is much to learn about Jesus's peacemakers and call to feed the hungry from aspirational fiction and poetry

The Literature of the Indian Diaspora Vijay Mishra, 2007-09-12 The Literature of the Indian Diaspora constitutes a major study of the literature and other cultural texts of the Indian diaspora It is also an important contribution to diaspora theory in general Examining both the old Indian diaspora of early capitalism following the abolition of slavery and the new diaspora linked to movements of late capital Mishra argues that a full understanding of the Indian diaspora can only be achieved if attention is paid to the particular locations of both the old and the new in nation states Applying a theoretical framework based on trauma mourning impossible mourning spectres identity travel translation and recognition Mishra uses the term imaginary to refer to any ethnic enclave in a nation state that defines itself consciously or unconsciously as a group in displacement He examines the works of key writers many now based across the globe in Canada Australia America and the UK V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie M G Vassanji Shani Mootoo Bharati Mukherjee David Dabydeen Rohinton Mistry and Hanif Kureishi among them to show how they exemplify both the diasporic imaginary and the respective traumas of the old and new Indian diasporas English Fiction Since 1984 B. Finney, 2006-10-10 This book focuses on representative novels by eleven key English novelists who have broken from the realist novel of the post Second World War period They have reacted to the Thatcherite revolution that thrust Britain into the modern world of multi national capitalism by giving unusual fictional shape to the impact of global events and culture Catholic Borderlands Anne M. Martinez, 2014-10-01 In 1905 Rev Francis Clement Kelley founded the Catholic Church Extension Society of the United States of America Drawing attention to the common link of religion Kelley proclaimed the Extension Society's duty to be that of preventing American Protestant missionaries public school teachers and others from separating people from their natural faith Catholicism Though domestic evangelization was its founding purpose the Extension Society eventually expanded beyond the national border into Mexico in an attempt to solidify a hemispheric Catholic identity Exploring international racial and religious implications Anne M Mart nez's Catholic Borderlands examines Kelley's life and actions including events at the beginning of the twentieth century that prompted four exiled Mexican archbishops to seek refuge with the Archdiocese of Chicago and befriend Kelley This relationship inspired Kelley to solidify a commitment to expanding Catholicism in Mexico Puerto Rico and the Philippines in response to the national plan of Protestantization which was indiscreetly being labeled as Americanization Kelley's cause intensified as the violence of the Mexican Revolution and the Cristero Rebellion reverberated across national borders Kelley's work with the U S Catholic Church to intervene in Mexico helped transfer cultural ownership of Mexico from Spain to the United States thus signaling that Catholics were considered not foreigners but heirs to the land of their Catholic forefathers

Bangkok Bound Ellen Boccuzzi, 2012-12-01 With the acceleration of global migration literature by migrant writers has emerged as a powerful medium for describing the ways in which global forces are experienced at the personal level Migrant literature offers a compelling counter narrative to abstract visions of globalization grounding large scale processes in real life stories of individuals In Thailand migrant writers have documented the social and cultural impacts of fifty years of rural urban migration through hundreds of stories poems and novels Bangkok Bound is the first book to examine this body of literature and the messages that Thai migrant writers convey about their experiences These stories powerfully describe the ways in which migrants who leave their homes bound for Bangkok are quickly bound to Bangkok through the transformative force of modern city life And they show the ways in which those who remain behind in the village are transformed too as they struggle to maintain a rural way of life in a rapidly urbanizing world Bangkok Bound will be of interest to anyone working on migration or urbanization as well as to scholars of Thailand and Thai literature Specialists in migration will find it a welcome addition to the growing field of migration studies through examination of narrative fiction What others are saying This is an engaging and authoritative study of literary representations of migration from the provinces to Bangkok based on wide reading of short stories written over the last four decades and interviews with major writers and critics It will be of interest not only to students of literature but also to anyone interested in social change in Thailand in the late twentieth century and the way that it has been perceived and recorded by local writers David Smyth SOAS University of London Highlights Useful for an introductory course on Thai or Southeast Asian studies offers a springboard for conversations on development rural urban inequality migration and the impacts of rapid urbanization in Asia First book to examine the theme of migration in Thai literature a significant contemporary genre Contributes to the growing field of migration studies through examination of narrative fiction Provides a window into how migration and urbanization are experienced at the personal level of interest to migration scholars as well as scholars of Thailand Thai cultural studies and Thai literature

Rhetorical Argumentation

Christopher W. Tindale, 2004-05-27 The study of argumentation has primarily focused on logical and dialectical approaches with minimal attention given to the rhetorical facets of argument Rhetorical Argumentation Principles of Theory and Practice approaches argumentation from a rhetorical point of view and demonstrates how logical and dialectical considerations depend on the rhetorical features of the argumentative situation Throughout this text author Christopher W Tindale identifies how argumentation as a communicative practice can best be understood by its rhetorical features Rhetorical Argumentation uniquely presents argumentation through the idea of an invitational rhetoric by encouraging readers to think about the ways in which they encounter arguments The book explores the processes involved in the argumentative exchanges between arguers and audiences thus emphasizing the collaborative nature of the arguer audience relationship in the argumentative situation That is argument is presented not as a set of ideas imposed upon a passive audience but rather as a dynamic exchange wherein the audience is involved in self persuasion Key Features Explores the ancient foundations of rhetoric from Aristotle to the relatively contemporary works of Perelman and Olbrechts Tytecta Toulmin and Bakhtin Includes numerous examples illustrating the ways in which the reasoning within arguments involves the audience from premise through to conclusion Presents the idea of dialogism drawn from the theories of Mikhail Bakhtin to create a more dynamic and interactive sense of the argumentative context Examines current theory as well as the historical relationship between argument and rhetoric Provides detailed discussions of topics such as nature of the dialogical rhetorical context audiences and standards of appraisal Rhetorical Argumentation is designed to provide advanced undergraduate and graduate students with a clear understanding of the rhetorical view of argumentation and how it can be effective in contemporary society The book is an ideal text for courses in Communication Rhetoric Argumentation Informal Logic Critical Thinking and Conflict Resolution Singapore Literature and Culture Angelia Poon, Angus Whitehead, 2017-03-03 Since the nation state sprang into being in 1965 Singapore literature in English has blossomed energetically and yet there have been few books focusing on contextualizing and analyzing Singapore literature despite the increasing international attention garnered by Singaporean writers This volume brings Anglophone Singapore literature to a wider global audience for the first time embedding it more closely within literary developments worldwide Drawing upon postcolonial studies Singapore studies and critical discussions in transnationalism and globalization essays unearth and introduce neglected writers cast new light on established writers and examine texts in relation to their specific Singaporean local historical contexts while also engaging with contemporary issues in Singapore society Singaporean writers are producing work informed by debates and trends in queer studies feminism multiculturalism and social justice work which urgently calls for scholarly engagement This groundbreaking collection of essays aims to set new directions for further scholarship in this exciting and various body of writing from a place that despite being just a small red dot on the global map has much to say to scholars and students worldwide interested in issues of nationalism diaspora cosmopolitanism neoliberalism immigration urban space as well as literary form and content This book brings Singapore literature and literary criticism into greater global legibility and charts pathways for future developments The Science Fiction Dimensions of Salman Rushdie Yael Maurer, 2014-01-30 This book focuses on the science fictional dimensions of Rushdie's later novels Fury The Ground Beneath Her Feet Shalimar the Clown and Luka and the Fire of Life and Rushdie's first unpublished novel The Antagonist to show how the author's oeuvre moves towards a more consistent engagement with science fiction as a generic form and an ideological investment The author demonstrates how Rushdie recreates personal and national histories in a science fictional setting and mode and contends that the failure of his first novel Grimus may have led Rushdie away from SF for some time although he returns to it with a much firmer conviction and a much stronger voice in his later novels showing his commitment to this imaginative form which he describes in Fury as providing the best popular vehicle ever devised for the novel of ideas and metaphysics The science fictional mode is the most appropriate vehicle for expressing these thematic and ideological concerns and the organizing feature of Rushdie's oeuvre The author rereads the later novels in light of recent critical engagement with SF as a vehicle for reimagining national histories and as a potentially subversive tool for social and political engagement in a fictional realm The Routledge Handbook to the Culture and Media of the Americas Wilfried Raussert, Giselle Liza Anatol, Sebastian Thies, Sarah Corona Berkin, 2020-03-02 Exploring the culture and media of the Americas this handbook places particular emphasis on collective and intertwined experiences and focuses on the transnational or hemispheric dimensions of cultural flows and geocultural imaginaries that shape the literature arts media and other cultural expressions in the Americas The Routledge Handbook to the Culture and Media of the Americas charts the pervasive asymmetrical flows of cultural products and capital and their importance in the development of the Americas The volume offers a comprehensive understanding of how inter American communication is constituted framed and structured and covers the artistic and political dimensions that have shaped literature art and popular culture in the region Forty six chapters cover a range of inter American key concepts and dynamics divided into two parts Literature and Music deals with inter American entanglements of artistic expressions in the Western Hemisphere including music dance literary genres and developments Media and Visual Cultures explores the inter American dimension of media production in the hemisphere including cinema and television photography and art journalism radio digital culture and issues such as freedom of expression and intellectual property This multidisciplinary approach will be of interest to a broad array of academic scholars and students in history sociology political science and cultural postcolonial gender literary globalization and media studies
