Step Right Up! William Castle, 1976 Memoirs of the Hollywood film maker who produced many horror films including Rosemary's Baby Step Right Up!...I?m Gonna Scare the Pants Right Off America William Castle, 1976 Little Horrors T.S. Kord, 2016-07-25 Zombies werewolves and chainsaw wielding maniacs are tried and true staples of horror films But none can match the visceral dread evoked by a child with an innocent face and a diabolical stare Cinema's evil children attack our cherished ideas of innocence and our innocent bystander status as the audience A good horror film is a scary ride a devil child movie is a guilt trip This book examines 24 international films with discussions of another 100 that in effect indict viewers for crimes of child abuse and abandonment greed social and ecological negligence and political and war crimes and for persistent denial of responsibility for them all For 75 years evil children have ritually rebuked audiences and in playing on our guilt established a horror subgenre that might be described as a blood spattered rampage on an ethical mission Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1975 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world's leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals The Dread of Difference Barry Keith Grant, 1996 An undying procession of sons of Dracula and daughters of darkness has animated the horror film genre from the beginning Indeed in this pioneering exploration of the cinema of fear Barry Keith Grant and twenty other film critics posit that horror is always rooted in gender particularly in anxieties about sexual difference and gender politics The book opens with the influential theoretical works of Linda Williams Carol J Clover and Barbara Creed Subsequent essays explore the history of the genre from classic horror such as King Kong and Bride of Frankenstein to the more recent Fatal Attraction and Bram Stoker's Dracula Other topics covered include the work of horror auteurs David Cronenberg Dario Argento and George Romero the Aliens trilogy and the importance of gender in relation to horror marketing and reception Other contributors include Vera Dika Thomas Doherty Lucy Fischer Christopher Sharrett Vivian Sobchack Tony Williams and Robin Wood Writing across a full range of critical methods from classic psychoanalysis to feminism and postmodernism they balance theoretical generalizations with close readings of films and discussions of figures associated with the genre The Dread of Difference demonstrates that horror is hardly a uniformly masculine discourse As these essays persuasively show not only are horror movies about patriarchy and its fear of the feminine but they also offer feminist critique and pleasure Current Book Review Citations, 1977 Library Journal, 1976 Montage/av, 2002 Congressional Record United States.
