Stephane Mallarme Modern Critical Views Series No II:

Maurice Blanchot on Poetry and Narrative Kevin Hart, 2023-05-18 Blanchot and his writings on three major poets Mallarmé Hölderlin and Char provide a decisive new point of departure for English language criticism of his philosophical writings on narrative in this study by leading Blanchot scholar Kevin Hart Connecting his work to later leading figures of 20th century French philosophy including Emmanuel Levinas Simone Weil and Jacques Derrida Hart highlights the importance of Jewish philosophy and political thought to his overall conception of literature Chapters on community and negation reveal Blanchot's emphasis on the relationship between narrative and politics over the more commonly connected narrative and aesthetics By fully discussing Blanchot's elusive concept of the Outside for the first time this book progresses scholarly understandings of his entire oeuvre further This central concept engages Franz Rosenzweig's work on Abrahamic faiths enabling a reckoning on the role of suffering and literature in the wake of the Shoah with significant implications for Jewish studies more generally

The Future of Postcolonial Studies Chantal Zabus, 2014-11-20 The Future of Postcolonial Studies celebrates the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Empire Writes Back by the now famous troika Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths and Helen Tiffin When The Empire Writes Back first appeared in 1989 it put postcolonial cultures and their post invasion narratives on the map This vibrant collection of fifteen chapters by both established and emerging scholars taps into this early mapping while merging these concerns with present trends which have been grouped as comparing converting greening post queering and utopia The postcolonial is a centrifugal force that continues to energize globalization transnational diaspora area and queer studies Spanning the colonial period from the 1860s to the present The Future of Postcolonial Studies ventures into other postcolonies outside of the Anglophone purview In reassessing the nation state language race religion sexuality the environment and the very idea of the future this volume reasserts the notion that postcolonial is an anticipatory discourse and bears testimony to the driving energy and thus the future of postcolonial studies

E. M. Forster as Critic Rukun Advani, 2016-08-19 This title first published in 1984 is a study of E M Forster as a liberal humanist thinker and socio literary critic Advani discusses Forster's ideas on man society politics religion art aesthetics fiction and literary criticism The author examines why Forster was impelled from fiction towards socio literary criticism and propaganda for art within the political and cultural context of post Great War Britain The book argues for Forster's continuing importance as much more than a skilful novelist It will be of interest to students of English cultural history literary theory and criticism and the work of E M Forster

All the World on a Page Andrew Kahn, Mark Lipovetsky, 2025-04-15 The rich and ongoing development of Russian lyric poetry explored through close readings of thirty four poems by poets ranging from Alexander Blok to Maria Stepanova The Russian cultural tradition treats poetry as the supreme artistic form with Alexander Pushkin as its national hero Modern Russian lyric poets often on the right side of history but the wrong side of their country's politics have engaged intensely with subjectivity aesthetic movements ideology usually subversive and literature itself All the World on a Page gathers thirty four poems written between 1907 and 2022 presenting each poem in the original Russian and an English translation accompanied by an essay that places the poem in its cultural historical and biographical contexts The poems both canonical and lesser known works extend across a range of moods and scenes Velimir Khlebnikov's Futurist revolutionary prophecy Anna Akhmatova's lyric cycle about poetic inspiration Vladimir Nabokov's Symbolist erotic dreamworld Joseph Brodsky's pastiche of a Chekhovian play set on a country estate Maria Stepanova's pandemic allegory of political repression Galina Rymbu's energetic manifesto My Vagina An introduction explores the abiding inspiration of modernism on the Russian lyric tradition Kahn and Lipovetsky's separate chapter essays informed by extensive knowledge of the existing scholarship and critical styles of interpretation consider how the interplay of originality and tradition and form and voice work to engage the reader The poems themselves many of them in newly commissioned translations operate outside state mandated poetic styles to address the reader directly t t t t t t as Brodsky said in his 1987 Nobel lecture With each chapter devoted to a different poem All the World on a Page allows readers to experience the richness of Russian poetry through poems and poets rather than through movements The academy, 1893 Delirious Kelly Baum, Lucy Bradnock, Tina Rivers Ryan, 2017-09-12 Can postwar art be understood as an exercise in calculated insanity Taking this provocative question as its basis this book explores the art and history of delirium from 1950 to 1980 an era shaped by the brutality of World War II and the rapid expansion of industrial capitalism Skepticism of science and technology along with fear of its capability to promote mass destruction developed into a distrust of rationalism which profoundly influenced the art of the times Delirious features work by more than sixty artists from Europe Latin America and the United States including Dara Birnbaum Le n Ferrari Gego Bruce Nauman Howardena Pindell Peter Saul and Nancy Spero Experimenting with irrational subject matter and techniques these artists forged new strategies that directly responded to such unbalanced times Disturbing and challenging the works in this book in multiple media and often counterintuitively incorporating highly ordered and systematic structures upend traditional notions of aesthetic harmony Three wide ranging essays and a richly illustrated plates section investigate the degree to which delirious times demand delirious art inviting readers to think crazy p p l margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 14 0px Verdana "Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789?914 " HeatherBelnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789 1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period

Julian Johnson,2020-01-10 Classical music shows a close relationship to language and both musicology and philosophy have tended to approach music from that angle exploring it in terms of expression representation and discourse This book turns that idea on its head Focusing on the music of Debussy and its legacy in the century since his death After Debussy offers a groundbreaking new perspective on twentieth century music that foregrounds a sensory logic of sound over quasi linguistic ideas of structure or meaning Author Julian Johnson argues that Debussy s music exemplifies this idea influencing the music of successive composers who took up the mantle of emphasizing sound over syntax sense over signification In doing so this music not only anticipates a central problem of contemporary thought the gap between language and our embodied relation to the world but also offers a solution With a readable narrative structure grounded in an impressive body of literature After Debussy ranges widely across French music demonstrating the impact of Debussy s music on composers from Faur and Ravel to Dutilleux Boulez Grisey Murail and Saariaho It ranges similarly through a set of French writers and philosophers from Mallarm and Proust to Merleau Ponty Jank l vitch Derrida Lyotard and Nancy and even draws from the visual arts to help embody key ideas In accessibly tackling substantial ideas of both musicology and philosophy this book not only presents bold new ways of understanding each discipline but also lays the groundwork for exciting new discourse between them

The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian,Anna Elizabeth Balakian,1984 Edited by Anna Balakian this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages The scope of these analyses which explore Latin America Scandinavia Russia Poland Hungary Serbia Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria as well as West European literatures continues to make the volume a valuable reference today As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution the fifty one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology divided into eight parts traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts pointing to Symbolism at work in painting music and theatre Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism The theoretical historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de siècle is still felt today Gawkers Bridget Alsdorf, 2022-03-01 How the urban spectator became the archetypal modern viewer and a central subject in late nineteenth century French art Gawkers explores how artists and writers in late nineteenth century Paris represented the seductions horrors and banalities of street life through the eyes of curious viewers known as badauds In contrast to the singular and aloof bourgeois flâneur badauds were passive collective instinctive and highly impressionable Above all they were visually captivated by the sights of everyday life Beautifully illustrated and drawing on a wealth of new research Gawkers excavates badauds as a subject of deep significance in late nineteenth century French culture as a motif in works of art and as a conflicted model of the modern viewer Bridget Alsdorf examines the work of painters printmakers and filmmakers who made badauds their artistic subject including Félix Vallotton Pierre Bonnard Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec Honoré Daumier Edgar Degas Jean-Louis Grugeon Eugène Carrière Charles Angrand and Auguste and Louise Lumière From morally and intellectually empty to sensitive empathetic and humane the gawkers these artists portrayed cut across social categories They invite the viewer's identification even as they appear to threaten social responsibility and the integrity of art Delving into the ubiquity of a figure that has largely eluded attention idling on the margins of culture and current events Gawkers traces the emergence of social and aesthetic problems that are still with us today The Bible in Theory Stephen D. Moore, 2010 The sixteen essays assembled in this volume four of them co-authored chart the successive phases of a professional life lived in the interstices of Bible and theory Engaging such texts as the Song of Songs 4 Maccabees Mark Luke Acts John and Romans and such themes as the quest for the historical Jesus the essays simultaneously traverse postmodernism deconstruction New Historicism autobiographical criticism cultural studies postcolonial studies masculinity studies queer theory and posttheory Individual essay introductions and periodic annotated bibliographies make the volume an advanced introduction to biblical literary criticism From publisher's description Mute Speech Jacques Rancière, 2011 Jacques Rancière has continually unsettled political discourse particularly through his questioning of aesthetic distributions of the sensible which configure the limits of what can be seen and said Widely recognized as a seminal work in Rancière's corpus the translation of which is long overdue Mute Speech is an intellectual tour de force proposing a new framework for thinking about the history of art and literature Rancière argues that our current notion of literature is a relatively recent creation having first appeared in the wake of the French Revolution and with the rise of Romanticism In its rejection of the system of representational hierarchies that had constituted belles-lettres literature is founded upon a radical equivalence in which all things are possible expressions of the life of a people With an analysis reaching back to Plato Aristotle the German Romantics Vico and Cervantes and concluding with brilliant readings of Flaubert Mallarmé and Proust Rancière demonstrates the uncontrollable democratic impulse lying at the heart of literature's still vital capacity for reinvention Publisher description Symbolism, Synesthesia, and Semiotics,

Multidisciplinary Approach Bonaventure Balla,2012-10 Enchantments Marci Kwon,2021-04-06 The first major work to examine Joseph Cornell's relationship to American modernism Joseph Cornell 1903-1972 is best known for his exquisite and alluring box constructions in which he transformed found objects such as celestial charts glass ice cubes and feathers into enchanted worlds that blur the boundaries between fantasy and the commonplace Situating Cornell within the broader artistic cultural and political debates of midcentury America this innovative and interdisciplinary account reveals enchantment's relevance to the history of American modernism In this beautifully illustrated book Marci Kwon explores Cornell's attempts to convey enchantment an ephemeral experience that exceeds rational explanation in material form Examining his box constructions graphic design projects and cinematic experiments she shows how he turned to formal strategies drawn from movements like Transcendentalism and Romanticism to figure the immaterial Kwon provides new perspectives on Cornell's artistic and graphic design career bringing vividly to life a wide circle of acquaintances that included artists poets writers and filmmakers such as Mina Loy Lincoln Kirstein Frank O'Hara and Stan Brakhage Cornell's participation in these varied milieus elucidates enchantment's centrality to midcentury conversations about art's potential for power and moral authority and reveals how enchantment and modernity came to be understood as opposing forces Leading contemporary artists such as Betye Saar and Carolee Schneemann turned to Cornell's enchantment as a resource for their own anti-racist feminist projects Spanning four decades of the artist's career Enchantments sheds critical light on Cornell's engagement with many key episodes in American modernism from Abstract Expressionism 1930s folk art and the emergence of New York School poetry and experimental cinema to the transatlantic migration of Symbolism Surrealism and ballet

First We Take Manhattan Diana Theodore,2013-10-15 Four American women Marcia Siegel Deborah Jowitt Arlene Croce and Nancy Goldner are writers who became dance critics partly by design By showing us extensive examples from their vivid writing about dance Diana Theodore presents a detailed and illuminating analysis of their styles and ideas from 1965 to 1985 the Golden Age of Dance in New York For the first time she presents these four writers as a school of dance criticism four women who defined American dance in a key era of its recent history About the Author Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress,1982 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1893 Paris Known and Unknown William Walton,1901
