Gender Stereotyping Rebecca Cook, Simone Cusack, 2011-07-19 Drawing on domestic and international law as well as on judgments given by courts and human rights treaty bodies, Gender Stereotyping offers perspectives on ways gender stereotypes might be eliminated through the transnational legal process in order to ensure women's equality and the full exercise of their human rights. A leading international framework for debates on the subject of stereotypes, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women was adopted in 1979 by the UN General Assembly and defines what constitutes discrimination against women. It also establishes an agenda to eliminate discrimination in all its forms in order to ensure substantive equality for women. Applying the Convention as the primary framework for analysis, this book provides essential strategies for eradicating gender stereotyping. Its proposed methodology requires naming operative gender stereotypes, identifying how they violate the human rights of women, and articulating states' obligations to eliminate and remedy these violations. According to Rebecca J. Cook and Simone Cusack, in order to abolish all forms of discrimination against women, priority needs to be given to the elimination of gender stereotypes. While stereotypes affect both men and women they can have particularly egregious effects on women often devaluing them and assigning them to subservient roles in society As the legal perspectives offered in Gender Stereotyping demonstrate treating women according to restrictive generalizations instead of their individual needs abilities and circumstances denies women their human rights and fundamental freedoms

Let My People Go! Phoebe Chifungu, 2023-08-29 Let My people go and serve Me regardless of sex is the ultimate appeal from God Unfortunately some cultural practices and wrong interpretations of the Bible have excluded some especially women from attaining key leadership roles Culturally women are considered second class and men's property source of evil and weaker vessels A wrong interpretation of the scriptures has sidelined women from obtaining decision making positions This is the result of what may be called a One Dimensional Approach and a recommendation is made to re-read the biblical texts as well as Chewa culture and the history of the synod with a Multi Dimensional Approach in which the literary theological rhetorical and historical cultural aspects are all considered because this approach liberates the oppressed and the marginalized
