Alan J. Pakula Tom Ryan, 2024-08-30 Renowned for his masterful storytelling Alan J Pakula 1928 1998 left an indelible mark on cinema history Alan J Pakula Interviews offers a concise yet comprehensive overview of the director's illustrious career from his early days in Hollywood to his rise as a major filmmaker From the famous paranoia trilogy of Klute The Parallax View and All the President's Men to the gripping psychological drama of Sophie's Choice and his often undervalued later work Pakula's diverse filmography has captivated audiences and critics alike The first published collection of interviews with the acclaimed director this volume presents an illuminating portrait of Pakula as a filmmaker an artist and a man of many parts The eighteen pieces compiled here including an illuminating introduction and previously unpublished 1983 interview by editor Tom Ryan provide a broad overview of Pakula's career. In his own words, Pakula recounts his experience as Robert Mulligan's producer, reflects on the bulk of films he made as director, and outlines his approach to the art of filmmaking. Taken as a whole, Alan J. Pakula: Interviews is a treasure trove of cinematic wisdom and a fitting tribute to the legacy of an important American filmmaker. New York Magazine, 1971-06-28. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Clockwork Liza Martin Wimmer, 2021-09-12. Actress, singer, musical theater star, gay icon, Liza Minnelli. Always citing the past but acting in the present, her image is an oddity of the entertainment industry. Private background and acting roles flow together in the case of Minnelli, who was born into the American show business in 1946. But she is more than Cabaret, Great American Songbook, Broadway, and drag model. This book is neither another sentimental biography of her so-called tragic private life nor a pure scientific examination. It simply aims to analyze her single fields of work in theater, film, television, recording studio, and on concert stage that all perform together like a clockwork. I Got Mine John Nichols, 2022-05-15. I Got Mine: Confessions of a Midlist Writer is the memoir of Nichols' extraordinary life as seen through the lens of his writing. Everything that went into making him a writer and eventually found an outlet in his work, his education, family, wives, children, friends, enemies, politics, and place is told from the point of view of his daily practice of writing. Beginning with his first novel, The Sterile Cuckoo, published in 1965 when he was just twenty-four, Nichols shares his highs and lows, his ambivalent relationship with money, his growing disenchantment with the hypocrisy of capitalism, and his love-hate relationship with Hollywood, including the years-long struggle of working with director Robert Redford on the film version of The Milagro Beanfield War, which was filmed around Truchas and featured many of Nichols' northern New Mexico neighbors. Throughout I Got Mine, Nichols spins a shining thread connecting his lifelong engagement with progressive political causes, his passionate interest in, and identification with, ordinary people, and his deep connection to the land. The Sterile Cuckoo Alvin Sargent, 1968. Screenplay identified as SECOND DRAFT. Everybody's Talkin' Barry Monush, 2009. The movies of the 1960s ran the gamut from glossy studio product to a less linear and less inhibited style of filmmaking. It was the decade during which censorship codes were demolished and the studio contract system fell apart. Every genre was strongly represented, from domestic dramas to spectacles, musicals, soap operas, and westerns. Some of the most diverse, daring, colorful, outrageous, and enduring of all motion pictures were released from 1965 to 1969. Screen World editor Barry Monush tells the reader why his top selections stood out among the other releases of those five years. The text is accompanied by illustrations of movie ads, tie-in book covers, soundtrack albums, sheet music, and other oddities. In addition, each film's entry includes a plot synopsis the opening date the studio and a creative staff and cast listing From The Sound of Music to Alfie In the Heat of the Night to The Lion in Winter Bob Carol Ted Alice to Planet of the Apes Easy Rider and Midnight Cowboy here is a pop culture feast for film buffs and all fans of that interesting point in time that was the late 1960s

Beyond the Translator's Invisibility Peter J. Freeth, Rafael Treviño, 2024-01-08 The question of whether to disclose that a text is a translation and thereby give visibility to the translator has dominated discussions on translation throughout history Despite becoming one of the most ubiquitous terms in translation studies however the concept of translator in visibility is often criticized for being vague overly adaptable and grounded in literary contexts This interdisciplinary volume therefore draws on concepts from fields such as sociology the digital humanities and interpreting studies to develop and operationalize theoretical understandings of translator visibility beyond these existing criticisms and limitations Through empirical case studies spanning areas including social media research reception studies institutional translation and literary translation this volume demonstrates the value of understanding the visibilities of translators and translation in the plural and adds much needed nuance to one of translation studies most pervasive polarizing and imprecise concepts

Fifty Hollywood Directors Suzanne Leonard, Yvonne Tasker, 2014-11-20 Fifty Hollywood Directors introduces the most important iconic and influential filmmakers who worked in Hollywood between the end of the silent period and the birth of the blockbuster By exploring the historical cultural and technological contexts in which each director was working this book traces the formative period in commercial cinema when directors went from pioneers to industry heavyweights Each entry discusses a director's practices and body of work and features a brief biography and suggestions for further reading Entries include Frank Capra Cecil B DeMille John Ford Alfred Hitchcock Fritz Lang Orson Welles DW Griffith King Vidor This is an indispensable guide for anyone interested in film history Hollywood and the development of the role of the director

Go Southwest, Old Man Mario Materassi, 2009 Go Southwest Old Man a sort of personal remake of Go West Young Man the founding episteme of the American nineteenth century conciliates these two souls well not to be pretentious let's simply say two sides that have actually always lived in harmony This is a book generated by a quarter of a century spent wandering around the canyons and deserts of Arizona Colorado Utah and above all New Mexico with a view to penetrating the by now universal legend of the West approaching the cultures English Hispanic and native American and mastering the literature The slant is composite melding the scholarly with the informative and the travel journal and the writing is composite too because the book speaks English and Italian It talks about cinema lots of John Ford and about detective stories the most popular genre here about visual arts and Latino folklore about the legend of the West the so called Soul of the Southwest and the kitsch style of Santa Fe And it talks about and with some of the greatest writers that the Southwest has spawned Rudolfo Anaya Stanley Crawford John Nichols and Hillerman So what we have is a first hand experience of the Southwest where the ego is not entrenched within a precise disciplinary role but opens up and exposes itself to the thrilling
