Ussher, Joan C. Chrisler, Janette Perz, 2019-09-23 The Routledge International Handbook of Women's Sexual and Reproductive Health is the authoritative reference work on important leading edge developments in the domains of women's sexual and reproductive health. The handbook adopts a life cycle approach to examine key milestones and events in women's sexual and reproductive health. Contributors drawn from a range of disciplines including psychology, medicine, nursing, and midwifery, sociology, public health, women's studies, and indigenous studies explore issues through three main lenses: the biopsychosocial model, feminist perspectives, international multidisciplinary perspectives that acknowledge the intersection of identities in women's lives. The handbook presents an authoritative review of the field with a focus on state of the art work encouraging future research and policy development in women's sexual and reproductive health. Finally, the handbook will inform health care providers about the latest research and clinical developments including women's experiences of both normal and abnormal sexual and reproductive functions. Drawing upon international expertise from leading academics and clinicians in the field, this is essential reading for scholars and students interested in women's reproductive health.

Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss Thomas Moe, 2014-01-02. Until now, the church has been unaware of the need for ministry to those suffering from pregnancy loss. At a time when approximately one in four pregnancies ends in loss, the need to understand and provide caring ministry is painfully obvious. Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss introduces the religious community to the issue of pregnancy loss and describes the ministries that can be helpful to those who experience these tragedies. Effective ministry in pregnancy loss requires that one develop basic life theories in order to prepare for such in-depth care. Thus, the book is more than a how-to, as it explores why there is suffering and why some suffer more than others, how to find grace when God seems far away, how to minister when we don't have answers, and how religious ministry can consistently work with other helping professionals in support of the individual. With the foundation of ministry theory provided by Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss, you can help your faith community develop strategies for ministry to those suffering from pregnancy loss. Numerous case studies illustrate what is usually done wrong in providing pastoral care in these difficult and delicate situations and explain why those who experience loss may blame themselves, why they may blame God, and why they may not feel able to return to church. Providing helpful insight to hospital pastoral care departments, church libraries, funeral directors, counselors, and psychologists, nursing and obstetrics professionals, and seminaries with a marriage and family ministry specialty, this book provides readers with information about three types of pregnancy loss: miscarriage, stillbirth, and neonatal loss; church outreach to the grieving process; victims as consenters or experiencers; the spiritual needs of those suffering loss; practical ministries; crisis support and long-term support. Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss furthers your understanding of pregnancy loss by enumerating theories on how suffering and loss are viewed by those suffering, either as a time of testing, a time of training, a mystery of God, a sign of punishment and warning, or as having no meaning. The book also shows how pregnancy loss affects five different types of personal relationships and discusses both immediate and long-term concerns of providing pastoral care. From helping the victim find meaning or reason for the loss to providing support in preparing for future pregnancies, this book provides much-needed guidance to an often neglected ministry Helping Those Experiencing Loss Robert J. Grover Professor Emeritus, Susan G. Fowler, 2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population The Mourning After Stanley P. Cornils, 1998-05 Grief is a reality of life Wanting to learn about it is one of the first steps toward recovery The more you study and become acquainted with the processes of grief the better you will be able to deal with it constructively The fact that you are reading this book indicates that you have chosen to survive Congratulations You will not have read very far in authentic literature on this topic before you discover that there are many things that will help you go from a grief you cannot handle to a grief you can handle You can learn how to manage it If you don't it will manage you This takes work and it isn't easy The purpose of this book is to help you understand what is happening to you why you feel the way you do and why sometimes you might be tempted to believe that you are losing your mind Herein we shall attempt to define the meaning and purpose of grief one's reactions to it and the most creative ways of handling it Introduction Recovering from Losses in Life H. Norman Wright, 2006-05-01 Life is marked by a variety of losses says certified trauma specialist H Norman Wright Some are life changing such as leaving home the effects of natural disasters or war the death of a loved one or divorce Others are subtle such as changing jobs moving or a broken friendship But whether readers encounter family personal or community disaster there is always potential for change growth new insight understanding and refinement Writing from his own experience Wright covers such issues as the meaning of grief blaming God and learning how to express and share in times of loss Now repackaged and updated with additional material Recovering from Losses in Life will help readers find hope in difficult times Study questions included The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Family Studies, 4 Volume Set Constance L. Shehan, 2016-02-29 The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Family Studies presents a comprehensive interdisciplinary collection of the key concepts trends and processes relating to the study of families and family patterns throughout the world Offers more than 550 entries arranged A-Z Includes contributions from hundreds of family scholars in various academic disciplines from around the world Covers issues ranging from changing birth rates fertility and an aging world population to human trafficking homelessness famine and genocide Features entries that approach families households and kin networks from a macro level and micro level perspective Covers basic demographic concepts and long term trends across various nations the impact of globalization on families global family problems and many more Features in depth examinations of families in numerous nations in several world regions 4 Volumes www.familystudiesencyclopedia.com Children

Mourning, Mourning Children Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-21 Based on the Hospice Foundation of America's second annual teleconference this book explores three basic themes in children's grief Firstly it maintains that children are always developing therefore their understanding of death and their reactions to illness and loss are also multifaceted and constantly undergoing change Secondly children grieve in ways that are both different from and similar to adults While they may need different therapeutic approaches from their elders each loss is different and the grief experience will be affected by many of the same factors that affect adults Thirdly it holds that they need significant support as they grieve Talking to children about loss and illness is too important to wait until a crisis rather it is essential to provide opportunities to discuss loss in times that are not so Emotionally Laden This Book Aims To Demonstrate That Open Communication between parents and children will lead to skills and understanding that are essential to the child for coping with loss and reaffirming that death is part of the process of living Confronting the Loss of a Baby Yamin Levy, 1998 The Lancet: Stillbirths The

Lancet, 2012-08-24 Around 2.6 million stillbirths the death of a baby at 28 weeks gestation or more occur each year Although 98% of these deaths take place in low income and middle income countries stillbirths also continue to affect wealthier nations with around 1 in every 300 babies stillborn in high income countries This book highlights the rates and causes of stillbirth globally explores cost effective interventions to prevent stillbirths as well as maternal and neonatal deaths and sets key actions to halve stillbirth rates by 2020 Also included are Comments from professional organisations and parent groups the latter demonstrating the unique tragedy for families of the birth of a baby bearing no signs of life This research was launched in London New York Hobart Geneva New Delhi Florence and Cape Town on April 14 2011 The Navy Chaplain, 1990
