Impressive text Postinternationalism and Small Arms Control Damien Rogers,2016-04-08 Even though impacts generated by the widespread availability and ongoing use of small arms and light weapons have not reached a magnitude sufficient to radically reorder contemporary world affairs awareness of the nature and extent of these impacts has compelled some international actors to take decisive action Damien Rogers examines how the international community has responded to the challenge of controlling small arms and light weapons since the early 1990s Using a postinternationalist analytic framework he specifically focuses on the maturing relationships between particular actors of world affairs and the nascent interconnectivity between their strategies for and approaches toward controlling these weapons Furthermore the book identifies ways in which the captains of small arms industry arms brokers and chief users of these weapons are able to mitigate resist or elude the intended effects of those responses Small Arms and Security Denise Garcia,2006-09-27

This book examines the emergence of new international norms to govern the spread of small arms and the extent to which these norms have been established in the policies and practices of states regions and international organizations It also attempts to establish criteria for assessing norm emergence and to assess the process of norm development by comparing what actually happens at the multilateral level If norm making on small arms and related multilateral negotiations have mostly dealt with illicit arms and most of the norms examined here fall on the arms supplier side of the arms equation the author argues that the creation of international norms and the setting of widely agreed standards amongst states on all aspects of the demand for availability and spread of both legal and illegal small arms and light weapons must become central to the multilateral coordination of policy responses in order to tackle the growing violence associated with small arms availability Small Arms and Security will be of interest to researchers and professionals in the fields of peace and conflict studies global governance international security and disarmament Small Arms Survey 2012 Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (Geneva, Switzerland),Small Arms Survey, Geneva,2012-08-30

The Small Arms Survey 2012 seeks to increase our scrutiny of what is changing and not changing in relation to armed violence and small arms proliferation Chapters on firearm homicide in Latin America and the Caribbean drug violence in selected Latin American countries and non lethal violence worldwide illustrate that security is a moving target armed violence both lethal and non lethal continues to undermine the security and wellbeing of people and societies around the world The goal of curbing small arms proliferation embodied in the UN Programme of Action appears similarly elusive Chapters on illicit small arms in war zones trade transparency Somali piracy and the 2011 UN Meeting of Governmental Experts highlight some of the successes but also the continuing challenges in this area Country studies on Kazakhstan and Somaliland along with the final instalment of the authorized transfers project round out the 2012 edition
