Adams, Mary Hamm, 2006 The Business of TV Production Craig Collie, 2007-08-06 Television is the dominant mass medium of the current era Its lifeblood in whatever form it takes is content the programs it broadcasts to the public This book is an insider s view of the business of production of TV programs for university level courses and for those in the industry wanting to upgrade their skills It is the story of the TV producer and the leadership of creative people the management of resources of production including funding and the guiding of the production process Covering all genres of television drama and comedy documentary and current affairs infotainment and reality TV it goes step by step through the journey from program idea to program delivery and beyond The Encyclopedia of Television, Cable, and Video R.M. Reed, M.K. Reed, 2012-12-06 This is a major reference work about the overlapping fields of television cable and video With both technical and popular appeal this book covers the following areas advertising agencies associations companies unions broadcasting cable casting engineering events general production and programming Film and Video Intermediality Janna Houwen, 2017-07-13 In Film and Video Intermediality Janna Houwen innovatively rewrites the concept of medium specificity in order to answer the questions what is meant by video and what is meant by film How are these two media to be understood How can film and video be defined as distinct specific media In this era of mixed moving media it is vital to ask these questions precisely and especially on the media of video and film Mapping the specificity of film and video is indispensable in analyzing and understanding the many contemporary intermedial objects in which film and video are mixed or combined

Transmission Peter d'Agostino, David Tafler, 1995 The essays in this volume investigate the impact of all media including the emerging technologies on the social cultural economic and political climate in the context of aesthetic values and issues of gender race and class Transmission examines the array of forces moving the contemporary video landscape forward comparing the past with the present as well as the future as it looks at the impact of video on commercial television the relationship of media to the social causes it mis represents and the effects of new communication tools on participating constituents

Trans-Reality Television Sofie Van Bauwel, Nico Carpentier, 2012-07-10 Trans Reality Television The Transgression of Reality Genre Politics and Audience offers an overview of contributions which engage with the phenomenon of reality television as a tool to reflect on societal and mediated transformations and transgressions While some contributors delve deep into the theoretical issues others approach the topic at hand through empirical studies of specific reality television formats and programs The chapters in this volume are divided into four sections all of which deal with how we see the fluid social at work in reality television through the trans real trans politics trans genre and trans audience The first section stresses the concept of the trans real These chapters go into the complexity of the construction of reality in reality television The second section which deals with the concept of trans politics offers a diversity of perspectives on the articulation and re articulation of politics and the political In the third section trans genre the chapters analyze how the modern conceptualizations of genre and format are transcended Finally the last set of chapters articulate the concept of trans audiences using case studies of particular audiences and a study of reality celebrities Trans Reality Television concludes by returning to the sense and nonsense of the use of these post concepts

Understanding the Global TV Format Albert Moran, Justin Malbon, 2006-01-01 Recent years have seen an astonishing growth in the adaptation of program formats in television systems across the world Under the new market conditions of the multi channel cluster brought about by new technologies and increased privatization of service the adaptation of successful and popular TV formats from one place to another is occurring on an increasingly regular basis Hence the remaking of different national versions of Big Brother and Pop Idol are only part of what is going on In fact from Chinese versions of Coronation Street and Sex and the City Indian and Indonesian remakes of Who Wants To Be A Millionaire program clones of Ground Force and other make over and renovation shows across Europe and the UK the present is the era of the global TV format But what exactly is a format After all programs have been copied and imitated since the beginnings of broadcasting In this the first book in the English language to systematically deal with the subject Albert Moran and Justin Malbon provide a valuable guide to the institutional cultural and legal dimensions of the format Now widely referred to although equally often misunderstood the TV format is a commodity of production finance distribution broadcasting and marketing knowledges that is facilitating the international reconfiguration of program making Understanding the Global TV Format thus addresses the different stages and issues of the business It tracks the steps whereby formats are devised developed and distributed Major companies are profiled as are the international markets and festivals at which trade occurs However there is also a great deal of piracy taking place so that the book is concerned with the control and regulation of format remaking Legal protection is often both the first and last recourse of parties and the authors examine the relevance of laws relating to such matters as copyright and contract

TV Format Mogul Albert Moran, 2013-01-06 Since the late 1990s when broadcasters began adapting such television shows as Big Brother Survivor and Who Wants to Be a Millionaire for markets around the world the global television industry has been struggling to come to grips with the prevalence of program franchising across international borders In TV Format Mogul Albert Moran traces the history of this phenomenon through the lens of Australian producer Reg Grundy s transnational career Program copycatting Moran shows began long before its most recent rise to prominence Indeed he reveals that the practice of cultural and commercial cloning from one place to another and one time to another has occurred since the early days of broadcasting Beginning in the late 1950s Grundy brought non Australian shows to Australian audiences becoming the first person to take local productions to an overseas market By following Grundy s career Moran shows how adaptation and remaking became the billion dollar business they are today An exciting new contribution from Australia s foremost scholar of television TV Format Mogul will be a definitive history of program franchising In Short Eileen Elsey,Andrew Kelly,2019-07-25 This work looks at the history of the short film and its current role It focuses on contemporary short film producers and directors and its role as a training opportunity for new talent It also covers issues of distribution funding exhibition festivals training and publications
