Small Town Graces Selections From The Moundville Times 1992 2002:

Small Town Graces Ken Chapman, 2003 There is an old yarn about a stranger passing through a small town The stranger stopped for gas and a soft drink at a service station Seeing an old timer seated on a bench the stranger decided to engage the man in a conversation Have you lived here all your life he asked Reflecting on the question for a moment the old timer responded Not yet Just like the old timer in the preceding story we too need to reflect on the things that matter the most in our lives so that we can joyfully say Not yet Each story in this collection will help the reader reflect on the graces that many of us feel are in short supply in our hurried fast paced lives These graces though difficult to describe or define show us that the simple things are often most profound and are at the center of our lives in our best moments In Small Town Graces Dr Chapman shares some of these graces which have come to him over the years

Veteran Friendships across Lifetimes Jamie Ward, 2016-12-13 Veteran Friendships across Lifetimes Brothers and Sisters in Arms seeks to add to the larger conversation about the band of brothers phenomenon by focusing on stories of survival after service members return home Based on five years of research including in depth interviews with fifty servicemen and women this book explores the interrelationship between camaraderie and contentment Ward specifically looks at how military friendships translate from the battlefield into civilian life and how these friendships assist soldiers in gaining peace with the past happiness in the present and hope for the future This text uses the themes of strength kinship and resilience to discuss the bonds and friendships that are created and maintained despite the savagery of the wartime experience
