Steeped In Two Cultures A Selection:

Industrial Culture and Bourgeois Society Jürgen Kocka, 1999 Jürgen Kocka is one of the foremost historians of Germany whose work has been devoted to the integration of different genres of the social and economic history of Europe during the period of industrialization This collection of essays gives a representative sample of his effort to develop by reference to Marx and Weber new and powerful analytical tools for understanding the dynamics of modern industrial societies
Society and Economy in Early Modern Europe, 1450-1789 Barry Taylor, 1989 The Atlantic Slave Trade J. E. Inikori, Stanley L. Engerman, 1992-04-30 For review see J R McNeill in HAHR 74 1 February 1994 p 136 137

Zionism and Free Enterprise Irit Amit-Cohen, 2012-10-01 Irit Amit Cohen explores the riddle behind disappearing citrus orchards and plantations from Israel's coastal scenery The book reveals the biographies of entrepreneurs who came to Palestine in the 1920s and 1930s Exposing the uniqueness of the plantation companies describing the figures involved in them and analyzing their contribution to forming Palestine's settlement landscape in the British Mandate period this book relates the intimate narrative of settlements which were built as temporary structures but still leave lasting imprints on the landscape California Dreaming Nahum Karlinsky, 2012-02-01 The citrus industry of Palestine has often been associated with the myths and ideals of the Labor Movement and its Zionist Socialist ideology The Jaffa orange like the young pioneer and the collective kibbutz was emblematic of a colonizing meta narrative that marginalized or even denounced the private entrepreneurs both Arabs and Jews who were the true founders and proponents of the flourishing citrus industry in Palestine California Dreaming reveals that these private entrepreneurs regarded the California citrus industry as their primary model of emulation Utilizing an innovative multidisciplinary approach Nahum Karlinsky vividly reconstructs the social fabric economic structure and ideological tenets of the Jewish citrus industry of Palestine in the early twentieth century Also accentuated is the role of Palestinian Arab citrus growers whose industry predated that of their Jewish counterparts and the complex relationship between the two national sectors that operated side by side The Cambridge Economic History of Europe H. J. Habakkuk, Michael Moissey Postan, 1965 Karl Lamprecht Roger Chickering, 1993 This is the first biography of the historian Karl Lamprecht whose theories of historical method unleashed a bitter controversy which colored the writing of history in Germany well into the twentieth century German Yearbook on Business History 1986 Beate Brüninghaus, Hans Pohl, Monika Pohle, Bernd Rudolph, Manfred Pohl, 2012-12-06 The German Yearbook on Business History is a source of insights into the entrepreneurial economy of the 19th and 20th centuries It contains translations of topical journal articles and informative reviews of results and trends in business history research As in the previous Yearbooks the authors of this volume are experts in economic theory and practice whose contributions cover a wide spectrum Particular Condition in Life David G. Burley, 1994-06-21 Using extensive quantitative data Burley provides a cultural analysis of the business community during the mid nineteenth century Because self employment was so pervasive in Brantford the impact of industrialization was particularly striking Self employed businessmen were forced to try to locate themselves in an emerging class system which often contradicted traditional Victorian social ideals of independence and manliness Burley s exploration of the tensions behind these conflicting values tensions both between myth and reality and within the bourgeois world view itself is an important addition to the literature on business behaviour and Victorian cultural history A Particular Condition in Life will be of interest to social urban and labour historians sociologists and those interested in the history of Ontario The Peculiarities of German History David Blackbourn,Geoff Eley,1984 This book investigates the role of bourgeoisie society and the political developments of the nineteenth century in the peculiarities of German history Most historians attribute German exceptionalism to the failure or absence of bourgeois revolution in German history and the failure of the bourgeoisie to conquer the pre industrial traditions of authoritarianism However this study finds that there was a bourgeois revolution in Germany though not the traditional type This so called silent bourgeois revolution brought about the emergence and consolidation of the capitalist system based on the sanctity and disposability of private property and on production to meet individual needs through a system of exchange dominated by the market In this connection this book proposes a redefinition of the concept of bourgeois revolution to denote a broader pattern of material institutional legal and intellectual changes whose cumulative effect was all the more powerful for coming to be seen as natural Steeped in Two Cultures Fritz Redlich,1971 Selected Water Resources Abstracts ,1991 The Publishers Weekly ,1972
