Ray Stanford Strong, West Coast Landscape Artist Mark Humpal, 2017-12-14 Throughout his long and prolific career Ray Stanford Strong 1905 2006 strove to capture the essence of the western American landscape An accomplished painter who achieved national fame during the New Deal era Strong is best known for his depiction of landscapes in California and Oregon rendered in his signature plein air style This beautiful volume featuring more than 100 color and black and white illustrations is the first comprehensive exploration of Strong s life and artistry Through family papers archives photographs and a two year series of interviews conducted with the artist personally Mark Humpal traces Strong's journey from his childhood on an Oregon berry farm to his artistically formative years in New York and San Francisco After moving back to the West Coast Strong produced important works for the WPA executed major diorama projects for two world expositions helped organize the Santa Barbara Art Institute and served as teacher and mentor for a new generation of plein air artists But as Humpal emphasizes Strong distinguished himself by resisting the drumbeat of the avant garde During an era when many artists were experimenting with abstract expressionism Strong never relinquished his personal vision and adherence to a more traditional style With his outgoing personality he forged friendships and associations with such prominent artists as Frank Vincent DuMond Maynard Dixon Ansel Adams Frank Lloyd Wright and John Steinbeck Ultimately Strong had little concern for his place in the sweep of art history The proficiency he achieved through years of formal and informal study allowed him to craft a personal style difficult to categorize but unique and engaging By expanding our understanding and appreciation of Strong's artistic contributions this book offers a fitting tribute to one of America's finest landscape artists

A Course of Instructions on Landscape Painting in Oil, Water Color, Pastel Painting D. M. Campana, 2014-12-03 This classic book offers a tutorial on landscape painting and would be an excellent addition to the bookshelf of anyone with an interest in the art Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork

Conceptualist Landscapes Paul Cooper, 2014-07-07 Conceptual gardens depend on inspiration which is the result of an exhaustive intellectual process The starting point is an IDEA or stimulus that pushes the design along rather than observing more conventional styles whether classical or modernist into which idea or relationships are fitted Horticultural considerations architectural or aesthetic doctrines and practically based problem solving are either abandoned or regarded as a means to an end rather than the end in itself Idea driven design therefore cannot be taught by a rule of thumb methodology So the way to design a conceptualist garden is not the theme of this book nor does it contain of the peg solutions for garden and landscape designers Rather it encourages student and professional designers to think further towards their designed solutions

The Studio, 1900 Teaching Landscape Karsten Jørgensen, Nilgöl Karadeniz, Elke Mertens, Richard Stiles, 2019-08-30 Teaching Landscape The Studio Experience gathers a range of expert contributions from across the world to collect best practice examples of teaching landscape architecture studios This is the companion volume to The Routledge Handbook of Teaching Landscape in the two part set initiated by the European Council of Landscape Architecture Schools ECLAS Design and planning studio as a form of teaching lies at the core of landscape architecture education They can simulate a professional situation and promote the development of creative solutions based on gaining an understanding of a specific project site or planning area address existing challenges in urban and rural landscapes and often involve interaction with real stakeholders such as municipality representatives residents or activist groups In this way studio based planning and design teaching brings students closer to everyday practice helping to prepare them to create real world problem solving designs This book provides fully illustrated examples of studios from over twenty different schools of landscape architecture worldwide With over 250 full colour images it is an essential resource for instructors and academics across the landscape discipline for the continuously evolving process of discussing and generating improved teaching modes in landscape architecture
