Eugene-Emmanuel Viollet-Le-Duc, 1990-03-07 Among architects and preservationists the writings of Viollet le Duc 1814 1879 have long been considered major resources They inspired a generation of American architects including Frank Furness John Wellborn Root Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright In 1894 the critic Montgomery Schuyler observed that Viollet le Duc s

books have had the strongest influence on this generation of readers But for the past century all but one of his works have been out of print in English These readings carefully selected from the entire range of Viollet le Duc s work make available the historical insights and practical principles of one of the most imaginative and inspiring architectural theorists of the modern era M F Hearn has culled from Viollet le Duc s books on architecture the passages in which his major ideas about the theory of architecture are most cogently expressed Hearn has arranged and interplated the readings in a sequence of topics covering Viollet le Duc s views on the architecture of the past his convictions about the education of architects his philosophy of method principles of design and his guidelines for restoration The selections are introduced by a biographical essay connected by interpretive commentaries and followed by a biographical note The Habitations of Man in All Ages Benjamin Bucknall,Marston Searle Sampson Low, And,2019-03-15 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Habitations of Man in All Ages Eugène-Emmanuel Viollet-le-Duc,1971 The Habitations of Man in All Ages Eugene Viollet-le-Duc,1971 Catalogue of the Library of the Department of the Interior, Including the Additions Made from May 3, 1877, to February 1, 1881 United States.
