Moore, 2003 Structured around a series of lectures presented at the Jung Institute of Chicago in a program entitled Jungian Psychology and Human Spirituality Liberation from Tribalism in Religious Life this book length essay attacks the related problems of human evil spiritual narcissism secularism and ritual and grandiosity Robert Moore dares to insist that we stop ignoring these issues and provides clear sighted guidance for where to start and what to expect Along the way he pulls together many important threads from recent findings in theology spirituality and psychology and brings us to a point where we can conceive of embarking on a corrective course Traditional doctrinal and historical interpretation both rely heavily on rational analysis But from the disciples at Emmaus to the beginnings of the present century it has been the impact of scripture upon the human heart that has changed human lives In recent decades this impact has been strengthened by advances in linguistic and literary theory by such disparate influences as feminism structuralism Jungianism deconstructionism the analysis of archaic imagery and myth the recovery of Gnostic texts and finally an openness to pluralism whether ethnic geographic religious or interpretive All of these factors are treated here with a brevity and comprehensiveness which convincingly show that the reader of scripture has a creative and not merely passive role If you would understand the deepest roots of terrorism greed and religious fanaticism read Facing the Dragon But be forewarned you may find some offshoots in your own garden June Singer Jungian analyst author of Boundaries of the Soul Robert Moore Phd was an internationally recognized psychotherapist and consultant in private practice in Chicago He was considered one of the leading therapists specializing in psychotherapy with men because of his discovery of the Archetypal Dynamics of the Masculine Self King Warrior Magician Lover He served as Distinguished Service Professor of Psychology Psychoanalysis and Spirituality at the Graduate Center of the Chicago Theological Seminary and has served as a Training Analyst at the C G Jung Institute of Chicago He is Co founder of the

Embodied Imaginations Chidambaram Ramesh, 2023-06-05 The science behind the writers experience of characters developing their own will and taking objective forms Many writers have the experience that their characters have evolved their own personalities They start to tell their own stories and sometimes they could even rebel against the author s ideas for them and change the course of the whole plot That is not all though Sometimes literary characters assume objective appearances which are visible not just to the creators but also to others and manifesting in the real world These experiences raise several interesting philosophical and scientific questions Have the writers unwittingly created quasi conscious entities by the power of their minds Can thoughts manifest as something tangible that can be seen heard or even touched How genuine are the contents of the mind Embodied Imaginations explores these questions highlighting the results of an investigation on this fascinating topic stemming from personal anecdotes of many writers Providing scientific evidence for the existences of these mental constructs the goal is to collect robust and reliable building blocks that may help to deconstruct perceptions and provide answers to this phenomenon The book attempts to give modern science a place where spiritual philosophical and mystical threads can be interwoven Efforts have been made to corroborate theoretical claims with experimental evidence contributing to research in cognitive psychology to determine the role of imagination in creating external reality This book will introduce you to the mysterious and profound part of creative writing that you never knew existed before
