Suarez On Individuation Mediaeval Philosophical Texts In Translation:

Suárez on Individuation Francisco Suárez,1982 Suárez on Individuation Francisco Suárez,Matthew (of Vendôme),1983 Mediaeval Philosophical Texts in Translation ,1942 The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown,Juan Carlos Flores,2010-03-23 The Middle Ages is often viewed as a period of low intellectual achievement The name itself refers to the time between the high philosophical and literary accomplishments of the Greco Roman world and the technological advances that were achieved and philosophical and theological alternatives that were formulated in the modern world that followed However having produced such great philosophers as Anselm Peter Abelard John Duns Scotus William of Ockham Peter Lombard and the towering Thomas Aquinas it hardly seems fair to label the medieval period as such Examining the influence of ancient Greek philosophy as well as of the Arabian and Hebrew scholars who transmitted it The A to Z of Medieval Philosophy and Theology presents the philosophy of the Christian West from the 9th to the early 17th century This is accomplished through a chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on the philosophers concepts issues institutions and events making this an important reference for the study of the progression of human thought Historical Dictionary of Medieval Philosophy and Theology Stephen F. Brown,Juan Carlos Flores,2018-08-10 This second edition concentrates on various philosophers and theologians from the medieval Arabian Jewish and Christian worlds It principally centers on authors such as Abumashar Saadiah Gaon and Alcuin from the eighth century and follows the intellectual developments of the three traditions up to the fifteenth century Ibn Khaldun Hasdai Crescas and Marsilio Ficino The spiritual journeys presuppose earlier human sources such as the philosophy of Plato Aristotle Plotinus and Porphyry and various Stoic authors the revealed teachings of the Jewish Law the Koran and the Christian Bible The Fathers of the Church such as St Augustine and Gregory the Great provided examples of theology in their attempts to reconcile revealed truth and man s philosophical knowledge and deserve attention as pre medieval contributors to medieval intellectual life Avicenna and Averroes Maimonides and Gersonides St Thomas Aquinas and St Bonaventure stand out in the three traditions as special medieval contributors who deserve more attention This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Medieval Philosophy and Theology contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important persons events and concepts that shaped medieval philosophy and theology This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about medieval philosophy and theology Universals in Second Scholasticism Daniel Heider,2014-03-15 This study aims to present a comparative analysis of philosophical theories of universals espoused by the foremost representatives of the three main schools of early modern scholastic thought The book introduces the doctrines of Francisco Suarez S J 1548 1617 the Thomist John of St Thomas O P 1589 1644 and the Scotists Bartolomeo Mastri da Meldola O F M Conv 1602 1673 and Bonaventura Belluto O F M Conv 1600 1676 The author examines in detail their mutual doctrinal delineation as well as the conceptualist tenet of the Jesuit Pedro Hurtado de Mendoza 1578 1641 whose thought constitutes an important systematic point of comparison especially with Suárez's doctrine The book offers the first comparative elaboration of the issue of universals in both its metaphysical and its epistemological aspects in the era of second scholasticism The Philosophy of Francisco Suárez Benjamin Hill, Henrik Lagerlund, 2012-01-26 During the seventeenth century Francisco Suárez was considered one of the greatest philosophers of the age He was the last great Scholastic thinker and profoundly influenced the thought of his contemporaries within both Catholic and Protestant circles Suárez contributed to all fields of philosophy from natural law ethics and political theory to natural philosophy the philosophy of mind and philosophical psychology and most importantly to metaphysics and natural theology Echoes of his thinking reverberate through the philosophy of Descartes Locke Leibniz and beyond Yet curiously Suárez has not been studied in detail by historians of philosophy It is only recently that he has emerged as a significant subject of critical and historical investigation for historians of late medieval and early modern philosophy Only in recent years have small sections of Suárez's magnum opus the Metaphysical Disputations been translated into English French and Italian The historical task of interpreting Suárez's thought is still in its infancy The Philosophy of Francisco Suárez is one of the first collections in English written by the leading scholars who are largely responsible for this new trend in the history of philosophy It covers all areas of Suárez's philosophical contributions and contains cutting edge research which will shape and frame scholarship on Suárez for years to come as well as the history of seventeenth century generally This is an essential text for anyone interested in Suárez the seventeenth century world of ideas and late Scholastic or early modern philosophy Angels George J. Marshall, 2015-08-13 In the 1990s alone more than 400 works on angels were published adding to an already burgeoning genre Throughout the centuries angels have been featured in among others theological works on scripture studies in comparative religions works on art architecture and music philological studies philosophical sociological anthropological archeological and psychological works and even a psychoanalytical study of the implications that our understanding of angels has for our understanding of sexual differences This bibliography lists 4 355 works alphabetically by author Each entry contains a source for the reference often a Library of Congress call number followed by the name of a university that holds the work More than 750 of the entries are annotated Extensive indexes to names subjects and centuries provide further utility Philosophers of the Renaissance Paul Richard Blum, 2010 A rich and accessible introduction to the philosophical thought that shaped modernity De Essentia Entis Finiti Ut Tale Est, Et de Illius Esse, Eorumque Distinctione Francisco Suárez, 1983 The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America John R. Shook, 2016-02-11 For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought From

1600 to the present day entries cover psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology and political science before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy Clear and accessible each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty first century thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland With in depth overviews of Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Noah Porter Frederick Rauch Benjamin Franklin Thomas Paine and Thomas Jefferson this is an invaluable one stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history Aristotelian Subjectivism: Francisco Suárez's Philosophy of Perception Daniel Heider, 2021-07-20 This monograph presents new material on Francisco Su rez s comprehensive theory of sense perception The core theme is perceptual intentionality in Su rez s theory of the senses external and internal as presented in his Commentaria una cum quaestionibus in libros Aristotelis De anima published in 1621 The author targets the question of the multistage genesis of perceptual acts by considering the ontological items involved in the procession of sensory information However the structural issue is not left aside and the nature of the relationship due to which our perceptions are mental representations of this or that object is also considered The heuristic historiographical background includes not only the theories of classical authors such as Aristotle and Aquinas but also those of late medieval authors of the fourteenth century These are headed by John Duns Scotus John of Jandun Peter Auriol and Peter John Olivi Readers will discover the differences between Su rez s and Aquinas s views as well as other sources that may have served as positive inspiration for the Jesuit s theory By considering the late medieval philosophy of the fourteenth century this book helps to a certain extent to fill a gap in the historiography of philosophy regarding the link between late medieval and early modern scholasticism In the first part of the book the metaphysics of the soul and powers is considered Chapters on the external senses follow covering topics such as the sensible species the causes of sensation self awareness and the ordering of the external senses A further chapter is devoted to the internal senses and the author argues that by reducing the number and functional scope of the interior senses Su rez deepens the gap between the external senses and the intellect but he reduces it through emphasizing the unifying efficacy of the soul This book brings a synthetic and unifying perspective to contemporary research and will particularly appeal to graduate students and researchers in theology and philosophy especially philosophy of mind Individuation in Scholasticism Jorge J. E. Gracia, 1994-07-01 Gottschalk and a Medieval Predestination Controversy Gottschalk (of Orbais), 2010 The question of predestination and its nature which drew strong protests from the monks of Provence in the early fifth century against the teaching of Augustine of Hippo was initially settled by the Council of Orange in 529 But in the Carolingian renaissance in the ninth century the Benedictine monk Gottschalk of Orbais brought the teachings of the late Augustine to the forefront of theological debate and greatly disturbed the clergy and faithful with his doctrine of double predestination of some to the joy of heaven and of others to the eternal punishment of hell a doctrine that he claimed was that of Augustine and the Catholic faith The present volume provides for the first time an English translation of Gottschalk's key writings on predestination and various reactions and comments from leading theologians of the ninth century as well as a learned introduction to Gottschalk's life and controversies Publisher

The Book of Causes Dennis J. Brand, 1984

Traditions of Natural Law in Medieval Philosophy Dominic Farrell, 2022-07-08 Reflection on natural law reaches a highpoint during the Middle Ages Not only do Christian thinkers work out the first systematic accounts of natural law and articulate the framework for subsequent reflection the Jewish and Islamic traditions also develop their own canonical statements on the moral authority of reason vis vis divine law In the view of some they thereby articulate their own theories of natural law These various traditions of medieval reflection on natural law and their interrelation merit further study particularly since they touch upon many current philosophical concerns They grapple with the problem of ethical and religious pluralism They consider whether universally valid standards of action and social life are accessible to those who rely on reason rather than divine law In so doing they develop sophisticated accounts of many central issues in metaethics action theory jurisprudence and the philosophy of religion However do they reach a consensus about natural law or do they end up defending incommensurable ethical frameworks Do they confirm the value of arguments based on natural law or do they cast doubt on it This collection brings together contributions from various expert scholars to explore these issues and the pluralism that exists within medieval reflection on natural law It is the first one to study the relation between the natural law theories of these various traditions of medieval philosophy Jewish Islamic Byzantine and Latin Each of the first four essays surveys the natural law theory of one of the religious traditions of medieval philosophy Jewish Islamic Byzantine and Latin and its relation to the others The next four essays explore some of the alternative accounts of natural law that arise within the Latin tradition They range over St Bonaventure Peter of Tarentaise Matthew of Aquasparta John Duns Scotus and Marsilius of Padua

Suárez's Metaphysics in Its Historical and Systematic Context Lukáš Novák, 2014-08-29 Although the importance of Francisco Suárez has been for some time already generally recognized even outside the circles of historians of scholasticism the wider context of his thought i e the rich and diverse Renaissance and Baroque scholasticism remains largely unexplored

This book is an attempt to contribute to the quest of putting Suarez's metaphysics a mere fragment of the whole of his intellectual legacy into context historical and systematic Being the fruit of an international conference held in Prague in October 2008 it puts together a systematically ordered selection of papers devoted to general and specific topics of Suarezian metaphysics with special respect to its sources and further impact Part One explores in the first place the notion of being and the nature of metaphysics in general Part Two then deals with more specific metaphysical topics such as the problem of universals causality relations and God The book will be of value not just to Suarez scholars but to anyone interested in the history of ideas in general and in the intricacies of metaphysical thought at the verge of modernity in particular
