Success Factors of Lebanese Small Businesses in the United States Zeinab Fawaz,2012-08-10 Small business is the heartbeat of the U S economy the primary source of jobs and the backbone of the nations well being In order to help the American economy recover from the recession the country urgently needs to dramatically boost its rate of small business creation This dissertation studied Lebanese small businesses in the United States focusing on the factors associated with their success in terms of sustainability and annual after tax income and the perception of their contribution to society and the economy A quantitative analysis of data gathering from 62 survey participants revealed that the success of Lebanese owned small businesses was attributed to their human resources operational management management attributes economic health and government regulations and owners personal traits All these factors interacted to generate higher dollar orders and helped businesses sustainability In addition this study might also help newcomers to the field seeking to develop their own business plans Other factors pertaining to the success of Lebanese small business owners were also examined and discussed within the framework of minority and enclave theories Lebanon Investment and Business Profile - Basic Information and Contacts for Successful investment and Business Activity IBP, Inc.,2017-12-09 Lebanon Investment and Business Profile Basic Information and Contacts for Successful investment and Business Activity Statutory Authorization Under the War Powers Resolution--Lebanon United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs,1983 Mobility between Africa, Asia and Latin America Ute Röscenthaler,Alessandro Jedlowski,2017-08-15 Trade connections and cultural exchange between Africa and the rest of the global South have existed for centuries Since the end of the Cold War these connections have expanded and diversified dramatically with emerging economies such as China India and Brazil becoming increasingly important both as sources of trade and as a destination for African migrants But while these trends have attracted growing scholarly attention there has so far been little appreciation of the sheer breadth and variety of this exchange or of its deeper social impact This collection brings together a wide array of scholarly perspectives to explore the movement of people commodities and ideas between Africa and the wider global South with rich empirical case studies ranging from Senegalese migrants in Argentina to Lebanese traders in Nigeria The contributors argue that this exchange represents a form of globalization from below which defies many of the prevailing Western assumptions about migration and development and which can only be understood if we consider the full range and complexity of migrant experiences Multidisciplinary in scope Mobility between Africa Asia and Latin America is essential reading for students and scholars across the social sciences interested in the interconnected economic and social make up of the global South Plays Harry O. Osgood,1889 Mrs. Tyler's Second Harry O. Osgood,1908 Report of a Study of United States Foreign Aid in Ten Middle Eastern and African Countries United States. Congress. Senate. place in countries that achieved independence from colonial rule after the second world war The case of Lebanon offers a striking illustration of these interlocking influences on projects of national economic development The persistently sectarian nature of the country's political institutions the relatively poor quality of governance and the major civil war that engulfed the country from 1975 to 1990 together define not only the context in which the achievements and failures of Lebanese development must be assessed but also the continuing challenges that it must face in the era of globalization This book offers an in depth analysis of Lebanese economic development during the second half of the twentieth century with special emphasis on the civil war and its aftermath Makdisi offers a definitive assessment of the principal phases of national development since Lebanese independence in the 1940s and a study of those conditions requisite for sustainable development for Lebanon as for many other developing countries Report of a Study of United States Foreign Aid in Ten Middle Eastern and African Countries Ernest Gruening, United States.
