The In Between God:

The Go-Between God John V Taylor, 2021-01-30 John Taylor's most famous book is a reminder that the Holy Spirit urges us toward a communal humanity Taylor's is a message especially pertinent in an age of crushing multinational capitalism and a rising tide of individual greed and fear of the Other Based on his Cadbury lectures delivered in 1967 The Go Between God is now considered one of the most important works ever written on the Holy Spirit and mission This edition contains a new foreword by Jonny Baker

Within the Love of God Anthony Clarke, Andrew Moore, 2014-11-27 The doctrine of God is central to theology for it determines the way in which other regions of Christian doctrine are articulated yet work on this topic in its own right has been occluded recently by treatments of the Trinity or divine passibility This collection of specially commissioned essays presents major treatments of key themes in the doctrine of God motivated by but not restricted to the work of Professor Paul S Fiddes to whom it is offered as a Festschrift It includes invigorating discussions of the biblical and non biblical sources for the doctrine of God and the section on Metaphysics and the Doctrine of God examines some of the most important conceptual questions arising in contemporary theological debate about the being and nature of God and God's relations to the world The final section of the book on God and Humanity will be highly relevant to scholars working in the fields of theological anthropology moral and political theology on inter faith relations on theology and literature or who are interested in the impact of contemporary science on the doctrine of God The introduction relates the essays in the book to the work of Professor Fiddes and to wider debates in Christian doctrine This volume brings together a team of internationally distinguished scholars from a wide range of theological philosophical and religious perspectives and it will stimulate fresh thinking and new debate about this most central of topics in Christian theology A discourse, i. Of the Trinity ... ii. Of God's existence ... iii. Of the certainty of the holy Scriptures ... iv. Of the immortality of our souls ... v. Of physick, metaphysick, and astronomy. [3 pt. Sections 2-4 are in Engl. and Fr., and section 5 is in Lat.]. Pierre Bérault,1700 The Christian remembrancer; or, The Churchman's Biblical, ecclesiastical & literary miscellany ,1850 With All the Fullness of God Jared Ortiz,2021-01-12

Christians confess that Christ came to save us from sin and death But what did he save us for One beautiful and compelling answer to this question is that God saved us for union with him so that we might become partakers of the divine nature 1 Pet 2 4 what the Christian tradition has called deification This term refers to a particular vision of salvation which claims that God wants to share his own divine life with us uniting us to himself and transforming us into his likeness While often thought to be either a heretical notion or the provenance of Eastern Orthodoxy this book shows that deification is an integral part of Catholicism Orthodoxy and many Protestant denominations Drawing on the resources of their own Christian heritages eleven scholars share the riches of their respective traditions on the doctrine of deification In this book scholars and pastor scholars from diverse Christian expressions write for both a scholarly and lay audience about what God created us to be adopted children of God who are called even now to be filled with all the fullness of God Eph 3 19 Imagining the Jewish God Leonard Kaplan,Ken Koltun-Fromm,2016-09-09 Jewish art has always been with us but so has a broader canvas of Jewish imaginings in thought in emotion in text and in ritual practice Imagining the Jewish God was there in the beginning as it were engraved and embedded in the ways Jews lived and responded to their God This book attempts to give voice to these diverse imaginings of the Jewish God and offers these collected essays and poems as a living text meant to provoke a substantive and nourishing dialogue A responsive living covenant lies at the heart of this book a covenantal reciprocity that actively engages the dynamics of Jewish thinking and acting in dialogue with God The contributors to this volume are committed to this form of textual reasoning even as they all move us beyond the text as foundational for the imagined people of the book That people we submit lives and breathes in and beyond the texts of poetry narrative sacred literature film and graphic mediums We imagine the Jewish people and the covenant they respond to as provocative intimations of the divine The essays in this volume seek to draw these vocal intimations out so that we can all hear their resonant call The Rapture of God William Lloyd Newell,2020-07-02 This is a book offering Balthasar s theological oeuvre as a kerygma of Christ s love proclaimed theologically as Christ s esthetics of glory in his mission to reinvent himself the world and us as beauty and glory Balthasar s hypothesis is that there is true theology and there is false theology For him theology is the unique science across the methods of which the decision of faith cuts and divides it into two halves that cannot be united to each other a genuine theology which presupposes faith and does its thinking within the nexus of Christ and the Church and a false theology which rejects faith as methodologically dubious and irresponsible and subsumes the truth of the phenomenon which discloses itself under an anthropological truth however this may be understood In William Newell s book he deeply reflects on the radical thinking being done in Catholic theology since the 1940s in Europe and now in the United States Each chapter each excursus each elision ushers the reader towards consolations without previous causes the essence of mysticism in its first stages The book as with true theology is a come and see beckoning the reader to an endless furtherance of the archetypal experience of Christ
