Housing, Class and Gender in Modern British Writing, 1880-2012 Emily Cuming, 2016-08-24 Domestic interiors and housing environments have historically been portrayed as a framing device for the representation of individuals and social groups Drawing together a wide and eclectic collection of well known and less familiar works by writers including Charles Booth Octavia Hill James Joyce Pat O Mara Rose Macaulay Patrick Hamilton Sam Selvon Sarah Waters Lynsey Hanley and Andrea Levy the author reflects upon and challenges various myths and truisms of home through an analysis of four distinct British settings slums boarding houses working class childhood homes and housing estates Her exploration of works of social investigation fiction and life writing leads to an intricate stock of housing tales that are inherited shifting and always revealing about the culture of our times This book seeks to demonstrate how depictions of domestic space in literature history and other cultural forms tell powerful and unexpected stories of class gender social belonging and exclusion

Home in British Working-Class Fiction Nicola Wilson,2016-03-09 Home in British Working Class Fiction offers a fresh take on British working class writing that turns away from a masculinist work based understanding of class in favour of home gender domestic labour and the family kitchen As Nicola Wilson shows the history of the British working classes has often been written from the outside with observers looking into the world of the inhabitants Here Wilson engages with the long cultural history of this gaze and asks how home is represented in the writing of authors who come from a working class background Her book explores the depiction of home as a key emotional and material site in working class writing from the Edwardian period through to the early 1990s Wilson presents new readings of classic texts including The Ragged Trousered Philanthropists Love on the Dole and Saturday Night and Sunday Morning analyzing them alongside works by authors including James Hanley Walter Brierley Lewis Grassie Gibbon Buchi Emecheta Pat Barker James Kelman and the rediscovered ex mill girl novelist Ethel Carnie Holdsworth Wilson s broad understanding of working class writing allows her to incorporate figures typically ignored in this context as she demonstrates the importance of home s role in the making and expression of class feeling and identity

Unmaking Merlin Elliot Murphy,2014-11-28 A unique exploration of how anarchist philosophy and practice has inspired some of the English language s most revered and reviled authors

British Aestheticism and the Urban Working Classes, 1870-1900 D. Maltz,2005-11-22 This cultural study reveals the interdependence between British Aestheticism and late Victorian social reform movements Following their mentor John

Ruskin who believed in art's power to civilize the poor cultural philanthropists promulgated a Religion of Beauty as they advocated practical schemes for tenement reform university settlement education Sunday museum opening and High Anglican revival Although subject to novelist's ambivalent even satirical representations missionary aesthetes nevertheless constituted an influential social network imbuing fin de siècle artistic communities with political purpose and political lobbies with aesthetic sensibility

The Working Class at Home, 1790-1940 Joseph Harley, Vicky Holmes, Laika Nevalainen, 2022-02-17 This book examines life in the homes inhabited by the working class over the long nineteenth century These working class homes are often imagined as distinctly unhomely spaces which the inhabitants struggled to fill with even the most basic of furniture let alone acquire the comforts associated with middle class domestic space The concerned reformers of industrialising towns and cities painted a picture of severe deprivation of rooms that were both cramped yet bare at the same time and disease ridden spaces from which their subjects required rescue It is an image which is not only inadequate but which also robs working class people of their agency in creating domestic spaces which allowed for the expression of personal and familial feeling Bringing together emerging scholars who challenge these ideas and using a range of innovative sources and approaches this edited collection presents a new understanding of working class homes
