The International Law of Detente Edward McWhinney, 2024-10-28 Nuclear Weapons and Contemporary International Law Edward McWhinney, Nagendra Singh, 2024-09-02 The International Law of Conventional Arms Control in Europe Burak Akçapar, 1996 The Logic of Internationalism Kjell Goldmann, 2002-11

Is internationalism plausible in today's world or must global relations be characterised by tension and war? The author analyses internationalism's coercive and accommodative dimensions and considers practical problems.

Multiculturalism and International Law Sienho Yee, Jacques-Yvan Morin, 2009-01-01

This volume examines the role and influence of multiculturalism in general theories of international law in the composition and functioning of international organizations such as the ICJ, the ILC, the UN and the ICC and in the progressive development of substantive international law regarding issues such as anti-terrorism, cultural identity, the Danish cartoons controversy, indigenous peoples and cultural exemptions at the WTO. With Forewords from Boutros Boutros Ghali and Shigeru Oda, this authoritative volume contains contributions from 36 distinguished scholars from every continent of the world tackling multiculturalism and international law, an ever more topical issue in honour of appropriately Edward McWhinney, an eminent scholar who has spent a substantial part of his life promoting multiculturalism.

Coexistence, Cooperation and Solidarity Holger P. Hestermeyer, 2011-11

Considering paradigmatic changes and current challenges in international law, this collection of essays covers diverse areas such as law of the sea, human rights, international environmental law, international dispute settlement, peace and security, global governance and its relationship to domestic law.

The United Nations and a New World Order for a New Millennium Edward McWhinney, 2021-10-18

The errors, military, political and not least diplomatic, in the continuing unfolding of the Yugoslav tragedy over the decade since the Fall of the Berlin Wall and the final ending of the Cold War offer certain lessons. It had been confidently predicted that the complex multi-national Yugoslav state created by the World War I victors at Versailles in 1919 and continued by the post-World War II peace settlements would not long survive Marshal Tito's death. As it happened, when the moment of truth arrived, the concert of Western European powers had no clear and coherent plans ready for a rational brokering of the resulting problems of State Succession, including renewed federal or confederal structures and peaceful and orderly transfer and relocation of civil populations if fragmentation and independence were to be the immediate policy options. The rush to a premature State Recognition by one or more leading Western European political players without having any congress of Berlin style game plan ready to guide and direct this may have triggered the onrush of political and military events that led in quick succession to the Bosnian and then the Kosovo tragedies of the 1990s. The author, currently President of the Institut de Droit International and a jurisconsult and advisor over the years to international and national governmental authorities, examines consequences and challenges for International Law and Law making as we enter the new Millennium. Taking note of the antinomies and contradictions inherent in Classical International Law Categories like Territorial Integrity and the Self determination of Peoples the Non Use of Force and Collective regional Self Defence the author considers in particular the direct conflict in the case of both Bosnia and Kosovo between the United Nations Charter principle of Non Intervention and the claimed New International Law principle of Humanitarian Intervention The legally permissible modalities and structures and processes for exercise of Humanitarian Intervention in accord with the United Nations Charter and also general International Law are canvassed and weighed Newsletter United States. Department of State,1980 The World Court and the Contemporary International Law-Making Process Edward McWhinney,2024-09-02 The Perestroika Era and International Law Kaj Hobér,2024-12-09 This insightful book explores the Perestroika era 1985 1991 considered to be one of the most eventful periods in modern history and in particular the ways in which it affected the Soviet approach to international law
