Reflections and prayers for those who hurt

JAMES MARTIN

Foreword by William Barclay

Suffering Man Loving God

Brother John of Taize

Suffering Man Loving God:

Suffering Man, Loving God James Martin, 1979 Suffering Man, Loving God James Martin, 1990 The Critical Philosophy of Hermann Cohen Andrea Poma, 2012-02-01 This is a translation of Andrea Poma's La filosofia critica di Hermann Cohen which first appeared in 1988 During the second half of the nineteenth century the German philosophical scene had witnessed the extinction of absolute idealism and the predominance of the naive materialism of the adherents of scientism Hermann Cohen's philosophy stood out in favor of the value of critical reason on which scientific idealism in the form of a revival of authentic rational idealism is founded His standpoint rejected the opposite extremes of both absolute idealism and naive materialism The Marburg school one of the great German philosophical schools at the turn of the century grew out of Cohen's philosophy which inspired a large number of twentieth century thinkers Cohen was without doubt one of the principal adherents of the return to Kant as a fundamental point of reference of Critical Idealism He based this revival on a long historical philosophical tradition represented by Plato Descartes Leibniz and others apart from Kant himself Although Cohen saw himself as Kant's heir he went beyond Kant in his development and deepening of the meaning of critical philosophy in his own philosophical system He followed an original path which revealed a great deal of the hitherto concealed potential of this type of philosophy In his later years Cohen turned his attention mainly to the philosophy of religion but his last works are not simply what would be termed the Summa theologica of contemporary Judaism They also belong to a continuous line connecting them to his previous thought deepening the meaning and extending the potentiality of critical philosophy and its connection to religious problems satisfactorily developing the aspect of thought on the limit of reason which for critical philosophy is a necessary complement to thought within the limits of reason No Man Is an Island Thomas Merton, 2002-10-28 The classic collection of essays for those seeking spiritual wisdom from the religious scholar Trappist monk and author of The Seven Storey Mountain A recapitulation of his earlier work Seeds of Contemplation this collection of sixteen essays plumbs aspects of human spirituality Merton addresses those in search of enduring values fulfillment and salvation in prose that is as always inspiring and compassionate A stimulating series of spiritual reflections which will prove helpful for all struggling to find the meaning of human existence and to live the richest fullest and noblest life Chicago Tribune Praise for Thomas Merton He is perhaps the proper patron saint of our information saturated age of we who live and move and have our being in social media and then desperate for peace and rest withdraw into privacy and silence only to return As we always will The New Yorker Merton wrote of ageless spiritual life and religious devotion with the knowledge of a modern The New York Times It is undoubtedly one of the most significant accounts of conversion from the modern temper to God that our time has seen America Magazine on The Seven Storey Mountain Loving God and Disturbing Men Donald A. Leggett, 2003 Loving God and Disturbing Men is an excellent resource for preachers and teachers that provides a balance between technical scholarly commentaries and popular devotional works Its unique strength lies in the author's ability to show the relevance of the prophets for the contemporary church and its ministry. Readers will appreciate the detailed scholarly treatment of the prophetic literature the author provides. But equally important, the author demonstrates that what the prophets said about God, evil, repentance, history, social justice, and eschatology has the ring of immediacy for us. Moreover, the study is helpful in treating the lives of the prophets as models of spirituality in prayer, suffering, and preaching. While the book is primarily for those who preach from the prophets, it is suitable for a much wider audience. A book on preaching from the prophets is desperately needed today by the Christian audience if we are to be faithful in declaring the whole counsel of God to our contemporary generation. Professor Donald Leggett is to be commended on his desire to aid the Christian community and its proclaimers in advancing this cause. It is a pleasure to commend this work.

Walter C. Kaiser Jr. Here is a pump primer and launch pad for preachers. Dr. Leggett's aim is to show us the wisdom of the prophets in a way that will excite us and enable us to share what we have seen. I appreciate this book for I think it will do its job. And the job is an important one. J. I. Packer.

Donald A. Leggett, Th.D., Free University, Amsterdam, is Professor Emeritus of Old Testament at Tyndale University College and Seminary in Toronto, Ontario. For 25 years, he also served as a pastor and elder at Village Green Baptist Church in London, Ontario.

Hating God, Loving God A. K. Davies, 2021-07-20

Hating God, Loving God presents the author's graphic and painful memories of being raised in a secretive, abusive, and manipulative cult, and how his childhood sufferings spilled over into a troubled adolescence and a deeply disturbed adulthood. In throwing off the lies told to him by the cult's elders, he also threw away any sense of God's love and mercy. His pain, fuelled by a hatred of God, whom he blamed for all his troubles, turned him into a bully, a petty thief, and but for the grace of God, a murderer. Somehow, he survived adolescence, got an education, and set out on the road to making money, believing that the accumulation of possessions was the only thing that would earn him respect. But his pain persisted, and he sought relief in all the wrong places. Even the unexpected love of a good woman was not enough to take away the pain. Adrift in an ocean of despair, he decided to commit suicide. It was only then, when he was at his lowest point, that he was ready to accept a truth he had persistently denied: the truth that God loved him. After giving my life to Jesus Christ, who transformed him and renewed his soul, he went from hating God to loving God.
