Cavaola, Joseph E. Colford, 2017-10-24 Crisis Intervention takes into account various environments and populations across the lifespan to provide students with practical guidelines for managing crises Drawing on over 25 years of relevant experience authors Alan A. Cavaola and Joseph E. Colford cover several different types of crises frequently encountered by professionals in medical school work and community settings Models for effectively managing these crises are presented along with the authors' own step by step approach the Listen Assess Plan Commit LAPC model giving students the freedom to select a model that best fits their personal style or a given crisis Future mental health professionals will gain the knowledge skills and confidence to help their clients manage the crises they will encounter in their day to day lives

Interviewing in a Changing World Jonathan H. Amsbary, Larry Powell, 2018-01-17 Interviewing in a Changing World offers students the broadest coverage of interviewing available today by including several unique interview situations Students begin to develop a better understanding of how to utilize strong interviewing skills in several different settings as this text demonstrates that interviewing techniques differ in accordance with varying situations and contexts The Second Edition covers employment contexts such as job interviews persuasive interviews performance and appraisal interviews as well as media interviews on radio television newspapers and political reporting There are two full chapters on research including interviewing skills needed for both qualitative and quantitative research The book covers several unique interviewing situations that are on the cutting edge of communication research with an interview with a professional from the field and multiple sidebars on related theoretical and applied issues within each chapter A Practicum in TESOL Graham Crookes, 2003-07-14 A Practicum in TESOL is a valuable source book for both teacher educators and classroom teachers It ranges widely across key areas of practice from the nitty gritty of lesson planning and classroom management through conceptual areas such as motivation and observation to crucial if more abstract aspects such as teachers' beliefs and values It also delves into the moral and political dimensions of teaching Discussion of these areas though well grounded in relevant academic literatures is also supported by extensive quotes from real teachers working on their practice The treatment is sufficiently challenging to interest the experienced teacher while covering matters of basic practice that would be of concern to the beginner Anyone doing a TESOL practicum will want to use this book whether as an in service teacher or as a teacher longing to further their professional development A Practicum in TESOL can be used individually or in groups

Introduction to Equine-Assisted Psychotherapy Patti Mandrell,2006-11 Tuning the Rig Fred Herron,2010-08-14 To tune the rig describes adjusting a ship s rigging the rig of a well tuned boat allows the sails to function well This task must be performed to ensure the best performance by the ship Tuning the Rig takes that metaphor as a guide for Catholic educators and administrators as well as for the larger church It argues from a variety of perspectives rooted in the Catholic imagination that the rig constantly needs to be re tuned to balance between visions of the church as teacher and learner Why should this matter to Catholic educators To Herron our understanding of the church as learner is at the heart of our understanding of ourselves as disciples One of the logical consequences of this era of baptismal consciousness is a rising awareness on the part of the laity that their task is not simply to pay pray and obey but to grow and journey in faith Herron s focus ranges from issues closely pertaining to Catholic schools to the larger questions of the Catholic imagination The underlying thread however is the challenge of maintaining the richness of the Catholic imagination of tuning the rig in changing times and the ordinary life of the church Linking Practice and Theory Fred A.J. Korthagen,Jos Kessels,Bob Koster,Bram Lagerwerf,Theo Wubbels,2001 Brings together in one volume Korthagen s research on integrating theory practice in teacher education Focuses on the concept of realistic teacher education how teachers can use reflection to link theory practice
