Secret Spaces: Sacred Treasures in England 1066-1320 Lesley Milner, 2024-05-27 The medieval treasure house consisting of sacristy vestry and treasure rooms was the depository for the ecclesiastical treasure belonging to a church holy vessels vestments altar hangings candlesticks and priceless liturgical books and reliquaries It was carefully designed to convey the message of its status and function A book devoted to these medieval museums which housed such precious materials is long overdue Ironically the interest in the objects that they conserved has often resulted in ecclesiastical treasure being removed to new museums leaving their former places of protection in need of protection themselves

Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature Writing Anneke Lubkowitz, 2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography's interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie's allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re-writing of the outdoors and John Burnside's use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfolds in these texts
