Faking It Lux Alptraum, 2018-11-06 From Out of the Binders co founder Lux Alptraum a controversial look at women sex and lying why myths about women s deceit persist how they came to be and ultimately why we must trust women When we talk about sex we talk about women as mysterious deceptive and above all untrustworthy Women lie about orgasms Women lie about being virgins Women lie about who got them pregnant about whether they were raped about how many people they ve had sex with and what sort of experiences they ve had the list goes on and on Over and over we re reminded that on dates in relationships and especially in the bedroom women just aren t telling the truth But where does this assumption come from Are women actually lying about sex or does society just think we are In Faking It Lux Alptraum tackles the topic of seemingly dishonest women investigating whether women actually lie and what social situations might encourage deceptions both great and small Using her experience as a sex educator and former CEO of Fleshbot the foremost blog on sexuality first hand interviews with sexuality experts and everyday women Alptraum raises important questions are lying women all that common or is the idea of the dishonest woman a symptom of male paranoia Are women trying to please men or just avoid their anger And what affect does all this dishonesty whether real or imagined have on women s self images social status and safety Through it all Alptraum posits that even if women are lying we re doing it for very good reason to protect ourselves My boyfriend will be here any minute to a creep who won t go away for one and in situations where society has given us no other choice
