The Idols of Death and the God of Life Pablo Richard, Liberation Theologies Ronald G. Musto, 2020-11-25 First Published in 1991 The following is a comprehensive scholarly bibliography of published materials on the varieties of liberation theology mostly in book form available in English It is intended as an introductory survey to this vast and quickly expanding field for the teacher and student of contemporary theology of biblical hermeneutics and to the interrelationship of politics and religion around the world It will also serve as a comprehensive bibliography Resurrecting the Death of God Daniel J. Peterson, G. Michael Zbaraschuk, 2014-04-11 In 1966 an infamous Time magazine cover asked Is God Dead and brought the ideas of theologians William Hamilton and Thomas J J Altizer to the wider public In the years that followed both men suffered professionally and there was no notable increase to the small number of thinkers considered death of God theologians Meanwhile Christian fundamentalism staged a striking comeback in the United States Yet death of God or radical theology has had an ongoing influence on contemporary theology and philosophy Contributors to this book explore the origins influence and legacy of radical theology and go on to take it in new directions In a time when fundamentalism is the greatest religious temptation this volume makes the case for the necessity of resurrecting the death of God The Christian Message as Vision and Mission Santiago Sia, 2017-08-21 With all the messages that come our way through social media and in sophisticated gadgets does the Christian message of love hope and redemption still have an importance and relevance What does it have to offer to enable us to meet the various challenges which beset present day living Today there is an even greater and more urgent need to focus on it After all the Christian message is not merely information because it is also about a way of life Neither is it simply an exhortation since it also presents a definite goal This book provides some philosophical considerations which underpin its central teaching While aware of its richness and complexity the essays concentrate on the Christian message insofar as it provides a vision for humanity and articulates a mission to implement it The book serves to establish points of encounter rather than points of departure in order to contribute to the ongoing reflection by those who believe in that message as well as to the debates with those who oppose it From Question to Quest Santiago Sia, 2010-04-16 In facing up to life and its challenges questions inevitably arise Different situations provoke specific questions mostly trivial but frequently fundamental always seeking some kind of answer While the transition from question to quest is a rather natural one for human beings and the need for answers is a serious human demand the quest itself is significant precisely because it is a human task This book offers a number of literary philosophical enquiries into these challenges of life But it is the one set of quests stimulated deepened and widened by literature and philosophy as well as developed in a literary and philosophical way Among the topics covered are the search for meaning in life the quest for wisdom the aim of moral striving the need for community life the importance of relationships the challenge of suffering the desire for deliverance and the longing for immortality The Amnesty of Grace Elsa Tamez,2002-01-14

The World & I ,1988 Liberation Theologies, Postmodernity and the Americas David Batstone,Eduardo Mendieta,Lois Ann Lorentzen,Dwight N. Hopkins,2013-09-13 Simultaneously arising out of such diverse contexts as the black community in the United States grassroots religious communities in Latin America and feminist circles in North Atlantic countries theologies of liberation have emerged as a resource and inspiration for people seeking social and political freedom Over the last three decades liberation theology has irrevocably altered religious thinking and practice throughout the Americas Liberation Theologies Postmodernity and the Americas provides a meaningful and spirited debate on vital interpretive issues in religion philosophy and ethics The renowned group of scholars explore liberation theologies uses of discourses of emancipation revolution and utopia in contrast with postmodernism s suspicion of grand narratives while assessing what the postmodernism liberation debate means for strategies of social and political transformation Guided by the experiences of those at the margins of social power liberation theologies demystify the eurocentric myths of secularization and modernity and calls for a re appraisal of religion in contemporary societies Contributors Edmund Arens David Batstone Maria Clara Bingemer Enrique Dussel Gustavo Gutierrez Jurgen Habermas Franz Hinkelammert Dwight Hopkins Lois Ann Lorentzen Eduardo Mendieta Amos Nascimento Elsa Tamez Mark McLain Taylor and Sharon Welch Robert Allen Warrior
