The International Law of Human Rights in Africa, 2017 The International Law of Human Rights in Africa M. Hamalengwa, Cees Flinterman, E. V. O. Dankwa, 1988-07 Against Apartheid in Sports 1986 The International Law of Human Rights in Africa United Nations Institute for Training and Research, 1988 Human Rights Law in Africa, Volume 3 (1998) Christof Heyns, 2021-11-01 International Human Rights Law in Africa & Domestic Human Rights Law in Africa Christof Heyns, Morne van der Linde, 2022-11-14

Contrary to popular belief there is a vast body of law dealing with human rights in Africa in existence today The first priority at the moment is consequently not the adoption of new norms or the creation of even more structures the most immediate challenge lies in making the existing structures work and ensuring compliance with the norms already accepted by African societies Access to the relevant material constitutes a necessary precondition for any other gains in this field The aim of this reference work is therefore to make African human rights law accessible to all those involved in or interested in human rights law on the continent in order to strengthen its impact Primary documents are introduced and reproduced and presented in a coherent framework The main institutions public and private dealing with human rights in Africa are identified and discussed Comprehensive overviews of the international human rights legal regimes applicable to Africa as well as country reports are provided Access to this body of law will enable judges practicing lawyers academics and other researchers as well as law reformers NGOs activists and students to both ascertain and assert these rights It will also serve to ensure the development of a stronger indigenous African human rights jurisprudence rooted in local experience history culture and practices This book consequently tries to contribute towards documenting systemising and anchoring the African human rights system This publication replaces and updates the earlier Human Rights Law in Africa Series which appeared on an annual basis from 1996 to 1999 In order to make the publication accessible in Africa the Centre for Human Rights and the Raoul Wallenberg Institute in Sweden have undertaken a targeted distribution campaign on the continent The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004138810 Protecting Human Rights in Africa Claude Emerson Welch, 1995 The first major comparative study of the way human rights south of the Sahara have been revolutionized by NGOs which have become the most effective detectives in discovering abuses and the most active advocates in seeking solutions Human Rights Law in Africa 1998 Christof Heyns, 2001-04-11 Statute of the ICTR The Global Face of Public Faith David Hollenbach, 2003-10-09 The Global Face of Public Faith addresses the hotly debated question of the role religion should play in politics in both the American and international contexts It engages the fears that public religion threatens American democracy and could lead to a global clash of civilizations and new wars of religion It analyzes how Christianity can attain common ground with other religious communities thus becoming a force for peace and human rights The separation of church from state need not mean the privatization of religion Religious engagement in public life can strengthen civic life by encouraging active citizen participation that promotes both justice and peace The question of religion and politics should thus become an argument about how faith becomes public not whether it does Religious communities Christianity in particular should be vigorous advocates of human rights democratic governance and economic development worldwide In so doing they will also become peacemakers David Hollenbach is a calm voice of reason in a chaotic world with an eye that sees beyond national horizons to where human needs and human rights converge He is convinced that religious traditions can find common ground through the use of rights and rights language The Global Face of Public Faith reinforces his commitment to confronting such issues as poverty and economic development globalism and interreligious dialogue He focuses here on faith and the Catholic tradition in politics the role of the church in American public life and the wider issues of global challenges and ethics in a search for a common set of moral standards and a international ethic through a commitment to universal human rights While not denying the difficulties of forging such a consensus he nonetheless sees the possibility for justice and reasons for hope And hope is something the world can always use
