The Guiana Maroons A Historical And Bibliographical Introduction:

The Guiana Maroons Richard Price, 1976 The Guiana Maroons Richard X. Price, The Guiana Maroons ("Bush Negroes") Richard Price, 1972 The Boni Maroon Wars in Suriname Wim Hoogbergen, 2023-08-14 This a fascinating account of the history of the Boni Maroons Aluku Maroons of Surinam and French Guiana from about 1730 until 1860 Based on archival data oral history and the literature the author paints an overall picture of this interesting Maroon history of guerilla warfare slave resistance and rebellion General History of the Caribbean UNESCO Vol.3 NA NA, 2019-06-12 Volume 3 looks at various aspects of slave societies in the region from the seventeenth to the nineteenth centuries Throughout the tortuous history of the Caribbean nothing exceeded in fundamental importance the twin experiences of slavery and the plantation system the defining episodes of Caribbean social reality Topics addressed include European settler colonies the sugar revolutions forms of resistance the influence of creolization and religious beliefs and the place of the Maroon communities Knight also examines the internal and external forces that led to the eventual collapse of the Caribbean slave system General History of the Caribbean UNESCO Volume 6 NA NA, 2019-06-12 Volume 6 looks at the ways historians have written the history of the region depending upon their methods of interpretation and differing styles of communicating their findings The authors examine how the lingual diversity of the region has affected the historian s ability to coalesce an historical account The second half of the volume describes the writing of history in the individual territories taking into account changes in society economy and political structure This volume concludes with a detailed bibliography that is comprehensive of the entire series The Imbalance of Power Marc Brightman, 2016-12-01 Amerindian societies have an iconic status in classical political thought For Montaigne Hobbes Locke Hume and Rousseau the native American state of nature operates as a foil for the European polity Challenging this tradition The Imbalance of Power demonstrates ethnographically that the Carib speaking indigenous societies of the Guiana region of Amazonia do not fit conventional characterizations of simple political units with egalitarian political ideologies and harmonious relationships with nature Marc Brightman builds a persuasive and original theory of Amerindian politics far from balanced and egalitarian Carib societies are rife with tension and difference but this imbalance conditions social dynamism and a distinctive mode of cohesion The Imbalance of Power is based on the author s fieldwork in partnership with Vanessa Grotti who is working on a companion volume entitled Living with the Enemy First Contacts and the Making of Christian Bodies in Amazonia Africa in America Michael Mullin, 1992 In an attempt to lay bare the historical and cultural roots of modern African American societies in the South and the British West Indies Michael Mullin gives a vivid depiction of slave family life economic strategies and religion and their relationship to patterns of resistance and acculturation in two major plantation regions the Caribbean and the American South Generalized observations of plantation slavery usually assumed to be the whole of Africans experience fail to provide definitive answers about how they met and often overcame the challenges and deprivations of their new lives Mullin

discusses three phases of slave resistance and religion in Anglo America both on and off plantations During the first or African phase from the 1730s to the 1760s slave resistance was generally sudden violently destructive and charged with African ritual The second phase from the late 1760s to the early 1800s involved plantation slaves who were more conservative and wary The third phase from the late 1760s to the second quarter of the nineteenth century was led by assimilated blacks artisans and drivers who having developed skills both on and off the plantation led the large preemancipation rebellions Mullin s case studies of slaveowners and plantation overseers draw on personal diaries and other documents to reveal memorable men whose approaches to their jobs varied widely and were as much affected by interactions with slaves as by personal background the location of the plantation and the economic climate of the times Extensive archival and anecdotal sources inform this pioneering study of slavery as it was practiced in tidewater Virginia on the rice coast of the Carolinas and in Jamaica and Barbados Bringing his training in anthropology to bear on sources from Great Britain the Caribbean and the United States Mullin offers new and definitive information

Jews in Another Environment Robert Cohen,2023-11-27 The most important Jewish center in the western hemisphere during the eighteenth century was the great colony Surinam There Jews formed perhaps the most privileged Jewish community in the world They were often plantation and slave owners as well as a sizeable proportion of the white population They had their own village with extensive autonomous rights This book is a study of the impact of environment on Jewish life in a colonial society It analyzes the impact of environment upon migratory patterns health and mortality economic structures intellectual life and communal dynamics Following the methods of social history this book uses an interdisciplinary approach to examine the impact of environment upon the modification of traditional values and modes of behavior This is the first full length monograph on Surinamese Jewry to appear in two hundred years The first one the Historical Essay of David Nassy treated Jewish history as part of the colonial experience This book treats the colonial experience as part of Jewish history

The Politics of Passion Gloria Wekker,2006 The Politics of Passion centers on an old institution among the Afro Surinamese working class in which women have multiple sexual relationships with both men and women These women reject marriage because of the bonds of dependency it fosters preferring to create their own families of kin lovers and children Gloria Wekker analyzes this phenomenon known as mati work as she vividly describes the lives of Afro Surinamese women She gives an account of women s sexuality that is not limited to either heterosexuality or same sex sexuality Her work offers new perspectives on black women s sexuality the lives of Caribbean women transnational gay and lesbian movements and an Afro Surinamese tradition that challenges conventional Western notions of marriage gender and sexuality By foregrounding the voices of Afro Surinamese women Wekker illuminates these women s daily lives in light of the changes occurring in Surinamese society She also considers the historical religious psychological economic linguistic cultural and political elements that have shaped their lives The book concludes with stories of women who have migrated to the Netherlands where they have created new vibrant

mati communities
