Today's Students Jennifer Fletcher, Adela Najarro, Hetty Yelland, 2023-07-03 Co published with and Students need more than just academic skills for success in college and career and the lack of an explicit instructional focus on the soft skills critical to postsecondary success poses a challenge for many students who enter college especially the underprepared Based upon a multi campus cross disciplinary collaboration this book presents the resulting set of habits of mind based strategies that demonstrably help not only low income ESL and first generation college students overcome obstacles on the path to degree completion these strategies equally benefit all students They promote life long integrative learning and foster intellectual qualities such as curiosity openness flexibility engagement and persistence that are the key to developing internalized and transferrable competencies that are seldom given direct attention in college classrooms This contributed volume written with full time and adjunct faculty in mind provides the rationale for this pedagogical approach and presents the sequential instructional cycle that begins by identifying students assets and progressively focusing on specific habits to develop their capacity to transfer their learning to new tasks and situations Faculty from both two year and four year colleges provide examples of how they implement these practices in English math and General Education courses and demonstrate the applicability of these practices across course types and disciplines Chapters address key factors of college success including The link between habits of mind and student retention and achievement Using an assets based approach to teaching and learning Supporting and engaging students Creating inclusive learning communities Building confidence and self efficacy Promoting transfer of learning Teacher networks and cross disciplinary collaboration By foregrounding habits of mind as an instructional lens this book makes a unique contribution to teaching in developmental and general education settings The Routledge Handbook of Discourse Analysis James Paul Gee, Michael Handford, 2013-06-17 The Routledge Handbook of Discourse Analysis covers the major approaches to Discourse Analysis from Critical Discourse Analysis to Multimodal Discourse Analysis and their applications in key educational and institutional settings The handbook is divided into six sections Approaches to Discourse Analysis Register and Genre Developments in Spoken Discourse Educational Applications Institutional Applications and Identity Culture and Discourse The chapters are written by a wide range of contributors from around the world each a leading researcher in their respective field All chapters have been closely edited by James Paul Gee and Michael Handford With a focus on the application of Discourse Analysis to real life problems the contributors introduce the reader to a topic and analyse authentic data The Routledge Handbook of Discourse Analysis is vital reading for linguistics students as well as students of communication and cultural studies social psychology and anthropology Contemporary Composition Studies Edith Babin, Kimberly Harrison, 1999-12-30 Composition studies is a rapidly growing and constantly changing field At present however graduate students new to the field and writing teachers who want to make new connections between theory and practice have little choice of current reference works that define key terms in composition studies and provide information about the scholars and researchers who have shaped and are shaping the discipline This book supplies this information in an easily accessible format and places both scholars and terms in the context of the field's development. Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 108 individuals who have developed the field and 128 terms central to the discipline. The first part of the book provides entries for leaders in composition studies. Each entry identifies the areas in which the scholar has contributed most influentially to the field and provides both a chronological overview of the person's contributions and a bibliography of representative works. The second part includes entries for terms that are problematic both for newcomers and for those already familiar with the discipline. The entries for the terms show how the disciplinary context has shaped the ways in which they have been used. The entries also indicate how established thinkers in composition studies and other disciplines have explained or defined the terms, provide examples of the terms in context, and list scholars often associated with them. An appendix includes entries for scholars from other disciplines who have contributed to the field.

Reclaiming the Tacit Dimension George Kalamaras, 1994-01-01. This book examines Eastern philosophies of meditative silence in the context of Western rhetoric and discourse theory, arguing that silence is an authentic mode of knowing. Rather than an emptiness that is nihilistic, the void of meditative silence is, according to the author, a fullness in which meaning occurs. Kalamaras calls for a rethinking of the implications of such a concept of silence on contemporary theories of composition and the teaching of writing.
