Some Examples of Furniture Charles Rennie Mackintosh, 1968 Some Examples of Furniture Charles Rennie Mackintosh, Harry Jefferson Barnes, 1969 The Furniture Gazette ,1877 List of Works in the New York Public Library Relating to Furniture & Interior Decoration New York Public Library, 1908 The Furniture Journal ,1927

Furniture-Makers and Consumers in England, 1754-1851 Akiko Shimbo, 2016-04-15 Covering the period from the publication of Thomas Chippendale's The Gentleman and Cabinet Makers Director 1754 to the Great Exhibition 1851 this book analyses the relationships between producer retailers and consumers of furniture and interior design and explores what effect dialogues surrounding these transactions had on the standardisation of furniture production during this period This was an era before mass production when domestic furniture was made both to order and from standard patterns and negotiations between producers and consumers formed a crucial part of the design and production process This study narrows in on three main areas of this process the role of pattern books and their readers the construction of taste and style through negotiation and daily interactions through showrooms and other services to reveal the complexities of English material culture in a period of industrialisation

Wooden Furniture in Herculaneum Stephan T.A.M. Mols, 2020-03-02 This study presents an overview of the wooden furniture that has come to light since the rediscovery of Herculaneum in the 18th century with an emphasis on the form function and the techniques employed The combination of comments in the excavation reports with the information derived from the surviving pieces of furniture and fittings made of other materials as well as indications for the presence of furniture in the architecture and decoration of the houses offers a representative idea of the role of wooden furniture in the interior arrangements of the houses at Herculaneum

Good Furniture ,1915

Furniture World ,1928 The Material World of Ancient Egypt William H. Peck, 2013-08-12 The Material World of Ancient Egypt examines the objects and artifacts the representations in art and the examples of documentation that together reveal the day to day physical substance of life in ancient Egypt This book investigates how people dressed what they ate the houses they built the games they played and the tools they used among many other aspects of daily life paying great attention to the change and development of each area within the conservative Egyptian society More than any other ancient civilization the ancient Egyptians have left us with a wealth of evidence about their daily lives in the form of perishable objects from leather sandals to feather fans detailed depictions of trades and crafts on the walls of tombs and a wide range of documentary evidence from temple inventories to personal laundry lists Drawing on these diverse sources and richly illustrating his account with nearly one hundred images William H Peck illuminates the culture of the ancient Egyptians from the standpoint of the basic materials they employed to make life possible and perhaps even enjoyable
