A Special Peson

*Beautiful eyes, a tender heart
And a smile that's very sweet
Before you came into my life
It was so incomplete*

*You always make me happy
You make my world go 'round
In anything we do together
Joy is sure to be found*

*I just want you to know
And hope that you can see
You're a very precious person
That God has shared with me*

reflects the experiences of most married couples before the sexual revolution of the 1960s. She encourages men and women to reflect on the wise or self-serving natures of their past dating and mating choices. If we can stop the reckless self-gratifying use of human sexuality with our children, our loving direction and understanding of God's truth can set them free from the temptations that have been passed down to recent generations. We must be ready to admit that sexual freedom is a myth and isn't intended for the well-being of men, women, children, and the unborn. This faith-inspired treatise explores the true source of happiness, meaning, and fulfillment that God has planned for everyone within the sacrament of marriage and the family circle.
