Something In My Eye:

Something in My Eye Michael Jeffrey Lee, 2012-01-31 An intriguing and highly original debut short story collection winner of the Mary McCarthy Prize in Short Fiction Booklist Michael Jeffrey Lee's stories are bizarre and smart and stilted like dystopic fables told by a redneck Samuel Beckett Outcasts hunker under bridges or hole up in bars waiting for the hurricane to hit Lee's forests are full of menace too unseen crowds gather at the tree line and bands of petty crooks and marauders bluster their way into suicidal games of one upmanship In Something In My Eye violence and idleness are always in tension ratcheting up and down with an eerie and effortless force Diction leaps between registers with the same vertiginous swoops moving from courtly formality to a slang that is the characters own It's a masterful performance and Lee's inventiveness accomplishes that very rare feat hyper stylized structure and language that offer both clarity and turbulence never allowing technique to obscure what's most important a direct address that makes visible those truths we'd rather not see Lee's stories are intriguing and highly original with a bent toward the weird both in character and worldview He is a master of voice portraying the lives of men who are lost lonely and disturbed Booklist Lee is very successful in creating a dream like emotionally disconnected state throughout with intentionally stilted dialogue and plots that tend to revolve around forms of symbolic gestures physical violence or sexual deviance Publishers Weekly

In the Eye of Heaven David Keck, 2007-03-06 A fiercely original epic fantasy debut

The Eye and the Mind C. Landesman, 1993-10-31 This book is a discussion of some of the major philosophical problems centering around the topic of sense perception and the foundations of human knowledge It begins with a characterization of our common sense understanding of the role of the senses in the acquisition of belief and it argues that scientific accounts of the processes of perception undermine salient parts of this understanding The naive point of view of direct realism cannot be sustained in the light of a scientifically instructed understanding of perception This critique of direct realism points to the correctness of the representative theory of perception characteristic of such early modern philosophers as Descartes and Locke and it also endorses the subjective turn that they defended It argues that these positions do not require introducing sense data into the picture and thus it avoids the intractable problems that the sense datum philosophy introduces In addition several versions of cognitive accounts of sense perception are criticized with the result that it is unnecessary to characterize sensory processes in intentional terms The book then turns to a leading question introduced into modern philosophy by Descartes and Locke the question of the accuracy of the information delivered by the senses to our faculty of belief In particular how accurate are our representations of the secondary qualities The case of color is considered in detail

What My Eyes Have Seen In My Lifetime Shontavia Brown, 2022-09-02 This is a summary of the book entitled A Blind Man's Tale This book depicts what my eyes have seen within my lifetime from the late 1950's until 2019 This book is a story about possible threats that are being placed against our Democracy and it gives a brief synopsis of some of the possible solutions to various problems that we currently face

within our Great Nation today This book is based upon World Leaders from then and until now who have played a key role in the vast history of our Nation and Democracy which has now found us in a State of Disarray We are in a situation knowing that half of these World Leaders appear to have not made the right decisions over the many years and the ones who did make the right decisions the Nation does not approve That s why I base the book on a lot of ideals that are formulated from greenhouse gases to the forest preserves burning to us starting a Nuclear War with North Korea So all of this is seen through the persona of how long are we going to keep doing the same old things over and over again by kicking the same old can down the road We appear to keep making the same old mistakes over and over again with all of these old and outdated laws from centuries long ago We continue to call ourselves the Number One Nation of the World and yet every Leader that enters into office continues to set their own private agenda And it s not even an agenda to help out our country nor the planet Earth No one appears to be looking out for the greater good of this Nation and it appears to be a continual agenda of the same old business as usual with profit over people with both the Middle Class and the Lower Income Families left to suffer and pay the costs of it all I would like for the reader to be able to grasp upon some new ways of thinking to spread love and peace immediately deploy steps to save our natural resources and put aside our differences so that we can work together as one United Front for the preservation of both our planet and mankind Let s all join together right now before it s too late to save our entire world May you continue to be an avid reader and change maker Thanks for listening The Bellman ,1914
