The Battle Of Bataan Americas Greatest Defeat:

The Battle of Bataan Robert Conroy,1969 Describes the unsuccessful struggle of American Filipino troops to defend Bataan against Japanese invasion in 1942 Inside the Bataan Death March Kevin C. Murphy,2014-09-24 For two weeks during the spring of 1942 the Bataan Death March one of the most widely condemned atrocities of World War II unfolded The prevailing interpretation of this event is simple American prisoners of war suffered cruel treatment at the hands of their Japanese captors while Filipinos sympathetic to the Americans looked on Most survivors of the march wrote about their experiences decades after the war and a number of factors distorted their accounts The crucial aspect of memory is central to this study how it is constructed by whom and for what purpose This book questions the prevailing interpretation reconsiders the actions of all three groups in their cultural contexts and suggests a far greater complexity Among the conclusions is that violence on the march was largely the result of a clash of cultures undisciplined individualistic Americans encountered Japanese who valued order and form while Filipinos were active even ambitious participants in the drama

Philippine-American Military History, 1902-1942 Richard B. Meixsel,2015-10-02 Military obligations rested lightly upon the Filipino people for much of the period that America occupied the Philippines but Filipinos could enlist in the United States Army and Navy attend the service academies at West Point and Annapolis or join military organizations restricted to duty in the islands such as the Philippine Scouts Philippine Constabulary Philippine National Guard and the navy s insular force In the 1930s the Philippine government established its own armed forces Throughout much of this time the U S army also kept a substantial portion of its troop strength in the Philippines This annotated bibliography of nearly 700 titles highlights the extent and variety of the Philippine American military experience from the conquest of the islands by the United States in 1902 to the defeat of Philippine and American forces by the Japanese in 1942 The bibliography includes memoirs and biographies of Filipino and American officers and enlisted men from MacArthur to Ferdinand Marcos unit histories army post and navy base histories medals and insignia books and the most extensive list of prisoner of war memoirs yet published Annotations address controversies such as the widely disparate estimates of American deaths on the Bataan Death March and include previously unpublished information such as casualty figures for American and Philippine forces in 1941 1942 Indomitable Will Charles Kupfer,2012-04-05 Some of the worst military disasters in U S history occurred between Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 and the Battle of Midway in June 1942 During this period the American people faced a barrage of bad news and accounts of defeats and retreats Yet if they were shocked and dismayed they showed little panic Indomitable Will resurrects the legacy of this first half year of American combat during WWII a legacy of pain but not of woe Historian Charles Kupfer recounts the story of the war s early defeats Bataan Corregidor Wake Island and the Java Sea Some of these battles remain evocative today others are obscure all were catastrophes for American arms Kupfer asserts however that later victories were made inevitable by the steeling effect of those initial disasters Weaving together military journalistic political and cultural histories this engaging book shows that by setting their collective will on victory Americans in and out of uniform gained strength from their setbacks Indomitable Will spells out how the nation turned early defeat into ultimate victory The Bells of Balangiga Eleonor Mendoza,2012-04 In 1898 when the USS Maine was sunk off the coast of Cuba the U S A entered the war against Spain By May 1898 Commodore Dewey won the Battle of Manila Bay against the Spaniards Filipino rebels were also fighting Spain at that time trying to be free from more than 300 years of Spanish colonization The rebels thought that the Americans had helped them become free but the Americans had other plans On September 28 1901 Americans were massacred at Balangiga Samar American rescue teams arrived and subsequently an order to make Samar a howling wilderness was given The bells used to signal the rebellion were taken as war booty by the Americans Forty years later WW II breaks out and they faced a common enemy And long ago a love that was in bloom was thwarted by a mysterious fate Would fate now be kinder to another love Jack looked Victoria in the eye when suddenly he felt his heart beat faster He was hoping he could talk with her and her family a little longer or maybe they would invite him for breakfast Suddenly he felt awkward Thanks for your help I ll be seeing you around he said He might have turned red He could still sense his rapid heartbeat and he hoped against hope that they did not notice Somehow he was able to get back to his jeep and drive back to his barracks John had been taking notes as she spoke then he put his pen down and looked up What happened that night Clara I just want to know he said Clara was already at the door her hand at the knob ready to flee She looked back at John and told her story When you left I was very happy making plans with my mother Suddenly Dolfo arrived He had been looking for me all afternoon and was very jealous thinking I was with you He confronted me Where have you been he said angrily and came toward me
