The Battle Over Bilingualism The Manitoba Language Question 198385:

The Battle Over Bilingualism Russell Doern, 1985 The Manitoba Language Question 1983 85 The French-Canadian Idea of Confederation, 1864-1900 A.I. Silver, 1997-12-15 At Confederation most French Canadians felt their homeland was Quebec they supported the new arrangement because it separated Quebec from Ontario creating an autonomous French Canadian province loosely associated with the others Unaware of other French Canadian groups in British North America Quebecers were not concerned with minority rights but only with the French character and autonomy of their own province However political and economic circumstances necessitated the granting of wide linguistic and educational rights to Quebec's Anglo Protestant minority Growing bitterness over the prominence of this minority in what was expected to be a French province was amplified by the discovery that French Catholic minorities were losing their rights in other parts of Canada Resentment at the fact that Quebec had to grant minority rights while other provinces did not intensified French Quebec nationalism At the same time French Quebecers felt sympathy for their co religionists and co nationalists in other provinces and tried to defend them against assimilating pressures Fighting for the rights of Acadians Franco Ontarians or western Métis eventually led Quebecers to a new concern for the French fact in other provinces Professor Silver concludes that by 1900 Quebecers had become thoroughly committed to French Canadian rights not just in Quebec but throughout Canada and had become convinced that the very existence of Confederation was based on such rights Originally published in 1982 this new edition includes a new preface and conclusion that reflect upon Quebec's continuing struggle to define its place within Canada and the world Manitoba's French-Language Crisis Raymond Hébert, 2004 An analysis of the dramatic events that overturned a century of discrimination against Franco Manitobans Faith, Rights, and Choice James Farney, Clark Banack, 2023-02-27 The Canadian provinces have evolved quite different ways of responding to the policy problems posed by religious schools Seeking to understand this peculiar reality Faith Rights and Choice articulates the ways in which the provincial governance regimes developed for religious schools have changed over time Covering nearly three centuries the book begins with the founding of schooling systems in New France and continues into a variety of present day conflicts that emerged over the question of religion in schools James Farney and Clark Banack employ a method of process tracing drawing on 88 semi structured interviews with key policy insiders They also reference archival material documenting meetings political speeches and legislative debates related to government decisions around issues of religious education Relying on the theoretical foundations of both historical institutionalism and Canadian political development Faith Rights and Choice presents a new analytic framework to help make sense of the policy divergence witnessed across Canada The Encyclopedia of Manitoba Ingeborg Boyens, 2007 An 800 page information source for all aspects of Manitoba's history arts politics nature geography business and sports The Charter of Rights and the Legalization of Politics in Canada Michael Mandel, 1989 The Canadian Historical Review, 1920 Includes section Recent publications relating to Canada CM

,1986 Conflict and Unity Roger Gibbins,1990 The Limits of the City Murray Bookchin,1986 The purpose of this book is to provide the reader with an idea of what the city was once like at its best to recover high standards of urbanization and to question the present lack of standards in judging the modern metropolis and the society that fosters its growth
