The Bedhaya Court Dances Of Central Java

Clara Brakel-Papenhuijzen

The Bedhaya Court Dances Of Central Java:

The Bedhaya Court Dances of Central Java Clara Brakel-Papenhuijzen, 1992 The stately bedhaya dances of the Central Javanese courts represent an ancient tradition of the House of Mataram As they were considered an heirloom of Javanese royalty the esoteric songs and choreographies accompanied by special gamelan music have almost fallen into oblivion The present discussion on their form and content provides important information on the development of the Performing Arts in Java It aims at preserving this beautiful tradition for future generations The Bedhaya Court Dances of Central Java Clara Brakel-Papenhuijzen, 2023-11-27 The ritual bedhaya dances of the Central Javanese courts form a highly valued expression of Javanese culture These stately dance forms comprising complex choreographies executed to the accompaniment of archaic songs and gamelan music are part of the cultural tradition of the Mataram dynasty They have been preserved in the two main court centres of Central Java Surakarta and Yogyakarta The contents of the book range from a relatively general introduction to a detailed analysis of structural formal features of the dances Included are theories on the origin social context and esoteric meaning as well as 19th and 20th century scores of performances The two main components of the art form choral singing and group dancing have each been discussed in a separate chapter A number of song texts and choreographies transcribed from palace manuscripts are published for the first time These songs represent an archaic singing style which holds important information on the development of Javanese vocal and instrumental music An analysis of bedhaya choreographies which are seldom performed nowadays may serve to prevent the impending disappearance of this beautiful and stylized art form The choreographic discussion has been visualized on a 60 minute video tape produced from research material which was filmed between 1983 1985 This video tape may be ordered from the author

The Seen and Unseen Worlds in Java, 1726-1749 Merle Calvin Ricklefs, 1998-01-01 An original and deeply researched work on a key period of Javanese history by a world expert The Music and Dance of the World's Religions E. Rust, 1996-08-23 Despite the world wide association of music and dance with religion this is the first full length study of the subject from a global perspective The work consists of 3 816 references divided among 37 chapters It covers tribal regional and global religions and such subjects as shamanism liturgical dance healing and the relationship of music mathematics and mysticism The referenced materials display such diverse approaches as analysis of music and dance description of context direct experience observation and speculation The references address topics from such disciplines as sociology anthropology history linguistics musicology ethnomusicology theology medicine semiotics and computer technology Chapter 1 consists of general references to religious music and dance The remaining 36 chapters are organized according to major geographical areas Most chapters begin with general reference works and bibliographies then continue with topics specific to the region or religion This book will be of use to anyone with an interest in music dance religion or culture Islam in the World Today Werner Ende, Udo Steinbach, 2011-12-15 Considered the most authoritative single volume reference work on Islam in the contemporary world the German language Der Islam in der Gegenwart currently in its fifth edition offers a wealth of authoritative information on the religious political social and cultural life of Islamic nations and of Islamic immigrant communities elsewhere Now Cornell University Press is making this invaluable resource accessible to English language readers More current than the latest German edition on which it is based Islam in the World Today covers a comprehensive array of topics in concise essays by some of the world s leading experts on Islam including the history of Islam from the earliest years through the twentieth century with particular attention to Sunni and Shi i Islam and Islamic revival movements during the last three centuries data on the advance of Islam along with current population statistics Muslim ideas on modern economics on social order and on attempts to modernize Islamic law shari a and apply it in contemporary Muslim societies Islam in diaspora especially the situation in Europe and America secularism democracy and human rights and women in Islam Twenty four essays are each devoted to a specific Muslim country or a country with significant Muslim minorities spanning Asia Africa the Middle East and the former Soviet Union Additional essays illuminate Islamic culture exploring local traditions the languages and dialects of Muslim peoples and art architecture and literature Detailed bibliographies and indexes ensure the book s usefulness as a reference work

Proceedings of the International Conference on Religious Architecture (ICRA 2024) Sutrisno Murtiyoso, Alvin Hadiwono, Titin Fatimah, Nafiah Solikhah, Samsu Hendra Siwi, 2025-06-26

This is an open access book Religion produced noteworthy architectures from the beginning of humanity Religion gives meaning and direction to human life and in the process unites and empowers human beings to direct their aspirations and resources to build spectacular works of houses of worship and gathering Religious architecture fills a significant part of history of architecture Since ages for the religions of mankind human beings have evolved a plethora of forms in simple stone buildings to the ones in sophisticated modern materials and technologies From an architectural point of view every building built for religion is sacred meaning it is dedicated to the powers beyond However the manifestations are so much varied as they depend on the regulations sanctioned by different religious teachings combined with the society s culture and tradition and the builder s intentions and aspirations Added to that are the local environmental factors the availability of building materials existing building technology and the time span of its development From what we know today the oldest religious architecture could be found in G bekli Tepe built around 10 000 years ago when humanity still lived as hunter gatherers Architecture developed further into megalithic period became increasingly monumental in the medieval age with colossal royal worship complexes Up to modern times we keep on building religious architectures with increasing elaboration The International Conference on Religious Architecture is organized with a hope to broaden our understanding and perspective in this often neglected field The study in religious architecture is more acutely felt in the regions outside of Europe and America while the demand is clearly pressing today The Conference should serve as a forum for scholars in the field hopefully being the first one in a series

Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen M. Creese, 2016-05-30 In Bali in the Early Nineteenth Century Helen Creese examines the nature of the earliest sustained cross cultural encounter between the Balinese and the Dutch through the eyewitness accounts of Pierre Dubois the first colonial official to live in Bali From 1828 to 1831 Dubois served as Civil Administrator to the Badung court in southern Bali He later recorded his Balinese experiences for the Batavian Society of Arts and Sciences in a series of personal letters to an anonymous correspondent This first ethnography of Bali provides rich perceptive descriptions of early nineteenth century Balinese politics society religion and culture The book includes a complete edition and translation of Dubois L'île de Balie en 1830 Sketch of Bali in 1830 Classical Javanese Dance Clara Brakel-Papenhuijzen, 2022-07-04 The core of this book is an encyclopedia of Javanese terms for individual dance positions and movements with detailed drawings by Marjolijn Groustra This is preceded by a discussion of the significance and function of the art of dancing in Javane complemented by lengthy excerpts from treatises written by Javanese specialists and by a survey of the different genres and choreographies of traditional Javanese dance The historical dimension is provided by an early twentieth century manuscript on Javanese dance from the Mangkunegaran

Globalizing the Prehistory of Japan Ann Kumar, 2008-11-24 This iconoclastic work on the prehistory of Japan and of South East Asia challenges entrenched views on the origins of Japanese society and identity The social changes that took place in Japan in the time period when the Jomon culture was replaced by the Yayoi culture were of exceptional magnitude going far beyond those of the so called Neolithic Revolution in other parts of the world They included not only a new way of life based on wet rice agriculture but also the introduction of metalworking in both bronze and iron and furthermore a new architecture functionally and ritually linked to rice cultivation a new religion and a hierarchical society characterized by a belief in the divinity of the ruler Because of its immense and enduring impact the Yayoi period has generally been seen as the very foundation of Japanese civilization and identity In contrast to the common assumption that all the Yayoi innovations came from China and Korea this work combines exciting new scientific evidence from such different fields as rice genetics DNA and historical linguistics to show that the major elements of Yayoi civilization actually came not from the north but from the south
