The Beginnings Of Christianity Context And Controversy:

Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando,Adriaan van Klinken,2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa The Beginnings of Christianity Frederick John Foakes-Jackson,1920 The Beginnings of Christianity ,1920 The Beginnings of Christianity: The Acts of the Apostles F. J. Foakes Jackson,Kirsopp Lake,2002-10-31 The Beginnings of Christianity Paul Wernle,1904 A History of Christian Thought: From the beginnings to the Council of Chalcedon Justo L. González,1987 A treatment of the evolution of Christian thought from the birth of Christ to the Apostles to the early church to the great flowering of Christianity across the world The first volume introduces the central figures and debates culminating in the Councils of Nicea and Chalcedon among which the theologies of the early church were hammered out Beginnings of Christianity: The acts of the Apostles Frederick John Foakes-Jackson,Kirsopp Lake,1920 Christian Controversies Scott Haraburda,2013 The Greatest is Love God wants us to love our neighbors If this is the premise of being Christian then why do thousands of denominations claim to be the right and true one implying that all others are false The author searches for truth and explores real world issues concerning Christians throughout history and today and the future of Christianity in this ever changing world Join the author as he challenges you to think outside of your comfort zone and questions what you might have been told not to question about the Word of God This book contains many facts and true stories some you might recognize and some from the author s own life as he logically discusses controversial subjects such as a Perfect Bible sex lying killing ethics Christian leadership Bible thumping judgment and women s rights It is well documented and written in easy to understand language to arm you with the knowledge you need to discuss Scripture in an educated and meaningful way and to develop a real world perspective of Christianity a must read for all who profess to be Christian Orthodoxy and Heresy in Early Christian Contexts Paul A. Hartog,2015-01-30 Eighty years ago Walter Bauer promulgated a bold and provocative thesis about early Christianity He argued that many forms of Christianity started the race but one competitor pushed aside the others until this powerful orthodox version won the day. The victors re wrote history marginalizing all other perspectives and silencing their voices even though the alternatives possessed equal right to the title of normative Christianity. Bauer's influence still casts a long shadow on early Christian scholarship. Were heretical movements the original forms of Christianity? Did the heretics outnumber the orthodox? Did orthodox heresiologists accurately portray their opponents? And more fundamentally how can one make any objective distinction between heresy and orthodoxy? Is such labeling merely the product of socially situated power? Did numerous valid forms of Christianity exist without any validating norms of Christianity? This collection of essays each written by a relevant authority tackles such questions with scholarly acumen and careful attention to historical, cultural, geographical and socio rhetorical detail. Although recognizing the importance of Bauer's critical insights, innovative methodologies and fruitful suggestions, the contributors expose numerous claims of the Bauer thesis in both original and recent manifestations that fall short of the historical evidence. With contributions from Rodney Decker, Carl Smith, William Varner, Rex Butler, Bryan Litfin, Brian Shelton, David Alexander, Edward Smither, Glen Thompson, Controversies over Islamic Origins Mun'im Sirry, 2021-06-21. What evidence do we have to reconstruct the origins of Islam? On the basis of what sources can the first century of Islam be accessed? Why do historians of early Islam consider the literary sources of Islamic origins to be so problematic? How is the problem of early Islamic history framed? This book addresses these critical questions by discussing various approaches to the problem of reconstructing Islamic origins. In a spirit of welcoming diverse perspectives and encouraging healthy scholarly debate, it explores different even conflicting modern theories about the emergence of Islam through various case studies including recent debates on the Qur'an, the biography of the Prophet and early conquest narratives. A broad spectrum of both traditionalist and revisionist scholarship is critically examined with the purpose of illuminating not only how modern scholars differ but also what they have in common.
