Latino TV Mary Beltrán, 2022-01-25 The history of Latina o participation and representation in American television Whose stories are told on television Who are the heroes and heroines held up as intriguing lovable and compelling Which characters are fully realized rather than being cardboard villains and sidekicks And who are our storytellers The first ever account of Latino a participation and representation in US English language television Latino TV A History offers a sweeping study of key moments of Chicano a and Latino a representation and authorship since the 1950s Drawing on archival research interviews with dozens of media professionals who worked on or performed in these series textual analysis of episodes and promotional materials and analysis of news media coverage Mary Beltrán examines Latina o representation in everything from children s television Westerns of the 1950s Chicana o and Puerto Rican activist led public affairs series of the 1970s and sitcoms that spanned half a century to Latina and Latino led series in the 2000s and 2010s on broadcast cable and streaming outlets including George Lopez Ugly Betty One Day at a Time and Vida Through the exploration of the histories of Latina o television narratives and the authors of those narratives Mary Beltrán sheds important light on how Latina os have been included and more often not in the television industry and in the stories of the country writ large

Digital Satire in Latin America Paul Alonso, 2024-12-03 How creators of online video critique politics and society and amplify public discourse in Latin American countries This book analyzes how digital native audiovisual satire has become increasingly influential in national public debates within Latin America Paul Alonso illuminates the role of online video in filling gaps in sociopolitical critique left by television traditional journalism and commercial entertainment while exposing some of the prevalent tensions of the region Alonso draws on interviews and analyzes media content to consider some of the most representative and influential satirical shows born on the internet and produced in Argentina Colombia Ecuador Peru Mexico and Latinx communities in the United States He discusses YouTubers Chumel Torres Malena Pichot Guille Aquino Joanna Hausmann and El Cacash the Enchufe tv collective and the video columnists Maria Paulina Baena from La Pulla and Mari ngela Urbina from Las Igualadas These creators use professional and non mainstream practices and resources to dismantle fake news highlight social tensions and offer in depth content that goes beyond confrontational attacks In contexts of highly ideological polarization Alonso argues digital satire is a unique type of hybrid alternative media that can articulate nonpartisan interpretations of reality while also questioning deconstructing and subverting the authoritative role of media Satiric voices can offer an informed reflexive argumentative or historically rooted perspective that amplifies public discourse and shapes changing notions of journalism and political communication in democratic societies A volume in the series Reframing Media Technology and Culture in Latin o America edited by Hector Fernandez L Hoeste and Juan Carlos Rodriguez Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

Crash Course in Serving Spanish-Speakers Salvador Avila,2008-10-30 This introduction will help plan for attracting this rapidly growing Spanish speaking population into the library and library services a major challenge to librarians in small public libraries who have no Spanish speaking staff Providing services to Spanish speakers is both an honor and a challenge Before public institutions venture into reaching out to the Spanish speaking community they need to become familiar with their cultural competency so that their decisions and initiatives are not at risk Reinventing the Latino Television

Viewer Christopher Chávez,2015-10-30 Reinventing the Latino Television Viewer Language Ideology and Practice examines how the relationship between language power and industry practice is reshaping the very concept of Hispanic television Chavez argues that as established mainstream networks enter the Hispanic television space they are redefining the Latino audience in ways that more closely resemble the mainstream population leading to auspicious forms of erasure that challenge the legitimacy of Spanish altogether This book presents the integration of English into the Hispanic television space not as an entirely new phenomenon but rather as an extension of two ongoing practices within the television industry the exploitation of consumer markets and the suppression of Latino forms of speech Latino Fiction and the Modernist

Imagination John S. Christie,2019-08-08 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The aim of this book is to approach Latino fiction from a wider perspective and to cross the standard critical boundaries between Latino groups in order to focus upon the literary language of a collection of complicated novels and stories Los Angeles Magazine ,2005-06 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian
