Eucontamination Paul Hoard,Billie Hoard,2025-07-25 For too long Christianity has been distorted by an overapplied purity disgust metaphor fueling exclusion reinforcing fear and enabling Christian Nationalism Eucontamination challenges this toxic framework arguing that Jesus did not retreat from impurity but transformed it This interdisciplinary work weaves together psychology psychoanalysis theology and sociology to expose how disgust has shaped Christian witness from theological education to church exclusion and social scapegoating But there is a better way The authors propose that Christ is not fragile in the face of sin but a good infection a force that spreads healing and redemption Instead of protecting a brittle purity true faith embraces eucontamination a sanctifying engagement with the world not a retreat from it For Christians seeking a faith that resists exclusion and embraces radical love Eucontamination offers a vision of transformation one where Truth Life and the Way are not delicate things to be defended but powerful forces moving through and within us all

Bones and I* George John Whyte-Melville, 1899 Biker's Diary: the Best of Ten Years Jan Meyer, 2012-01-31 Bikers Diary started in 1999 as a weekly column in a local newspaper then known as the River Valley Reader now the Bluff Country Reader Located in a very popular tourist area the publishers plan was a newspaper that emphasized local arts culture and recreation Dr Jan applauded that effort and had spent a year as a community columnist for another paper so she submitted some sample columns and proposed this column written by a biker. Ten successful years later she was asked by a faithful reader if she intended to publish the columns in a book. That started her thinking and she asked her publisher for permission to do so which was granted. At the beginning Dr Jan was living in Lincoln and commuting to her and Spouse Rogers country place near Lanesboro MN. Upon retirement they chose that country place as their primary residence. Those locations and the people along the way provided fodder for the mill of writing as have the many places around the world to which they have both traveled and or at which Dr Jan has worked. The column started out as a way to capture the ambling and sometimes philosophical thoughts and experiences triggered by almost daily time spent on a bike. When a serious illness got in the way of biking the habit of writing about life became almost a tension reliever as she wrote about that experience. In the years since it started the column has evolved into writing about anything and everything she and others experience in life. This book captures some of the best of those first ten years. Baily's Magazine of Sports and Pastimes Tresham Gilbey, 1919
