The Hanging Tree:

The Hanging Tree David Lambkin, 1998-06-01 Palaeontologist Kathryn Widd is in the Kenyan wild investigating hominid skull fragments She becomes intrigued by a 1908 safari and the British nobleman who died mysteriously The further she probes the more deeply she is drawn into past lives and ancient mysterious forces of violence When palaeontologist Kathryn Widd is called to the Kenyan wilderness to investigate a set of hominid skull fragments she little suspects how profoundly the journey will change her As she studies the ancient fossils she becomes intrigued by the tale of a 1908 safari and the British nobleman who died mysteriously near the site of her dig The further she probes the more deeply she is drawn into past lives and a world turned upside down by ancient mysterious forces of violence Surrounded only by the vast wasteland of African desert her forgotten sexuality is gradually reawakened first by Marion Macmillan the neglected wife of Kathryn's alcoholic colleague then by the mystic nomad Daniel Tregallion As the academic significance of the findings begins to attract worldwide attention Kathryn finds herself drawn into a vortex of dark passion native curses and devastating political violence

The Hanging Tree Kristy Thomas, 2016-01-03 Ester is an older African American woman who begins the scene in her late seventies humming and standing underneath The Hanging Tree in the downtown square of Mansfield TX where she was born and raised This tree represents the death of hundreds of African American men women and children that were hung in this city for as long as time can remember In 1957 one of its victims was Ester's son Toby He was determined to integrate the local high school so with a group of his friends they protest at the doors of the school Men from the city arrive and beat all of them but Toby was the ringleader and they took him downtown and hung him Ester comes to this tree very often just to feel like she is in the presence of her son She goes from present time back to the night that the murder happened remembering all of the things that she did that night to try and support her son while being a mother in a vital time of American history Ester is a strong woman and her story is unlike any that has been told of a time in our history that we can never forget This is just a snapshot her moment in time that forever shaped who she was as a woman and as a mother The moment that she watched her son swing from The Hanging Tree

The Hanging Tree Paul Stewart, 1998 Weird Washington Jeff Davis, Al Eufrazio, 2008 Each fun and intriguing volume offers more than 250 illustrated pages of places where tourists usually don't venture These unique travel guides are chock full of information about oddball curiosities ghostly places local legends and peculiar roadside attractions

Palumbo,2012-07-24 This collection of fresh essays on Suzanne Collins s epic trilogy spans multiple disciplines The contributors probe the trilogy s meaning using theories grounded in historicism feminism humanism queer theory as well as cultural political and media studies The essayists demonstrate diverse perspectives regarding Collins s novels but their works have three elements in common an appreciation of the trilogy as literature a belief in its permanent value and a need to share both appreciation and belief with fellow readers The 21 essays that follow the context setting introduction are grouped into four parts Part I History Politics Economics and Culture Part II Ethics Aesthetics and Identity Part III Resistance Surveillance and Simulacra and Part IV Thematic Parallels and Literary Traditions A core bibliography of dystopian and postapocalyptic works is included with emphasis on the young adult category itself an increasingly crucial part of postmodern culture

Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Condemned for Love in Old Virginia: The Lynching of Arthur Jordan James Hall,2023 When romance was met with murder Arthur Jordan and Elvira

Corder were young and unafraid but their love was doomed He was black she was white and this was Virginia in 1880 When Elvira became pregnant the couple fled Fauquier County to live in Maryland But her father found them and recruited neighbors to help kidnap them Four nights later a mob dragged Arthur from the county jail in Warrenton and lynched him Elvira taken to a hotel in Williamsport Maryland was never heard from again Stories of lynching are all too common in the postbellum South but this one tells a unique tale of a couple who were willing to sacrifice everything to be together and did Author Jim Hall tells a classic tale of forbidden love one of hope crushed by hate Crime, Courtrooms and the Public Sphere in Britain, 1700-1850 David Lemmings,2016-05-13 Modern criminal courts are characteristically the domain of lawyers with trials conducted in an environment of formality and solemnity where facts are found and legal rules are impartially applied to administer justice Recent historical scholarship has shown that in England lawyers only began to appear in ordinary criminal trials during the eighteenth century however and earlier trials often took place in an atmosphere of noise and disorder where the behaviour of the crowd significant body language meaningful looks and audible comment could influence decisively the decisions of jurors and judges This collection of essays considers this transition from early scenes of popular participation to the much more orderly and professional legal proceedings typical of the nineteenth century and links this with another important shift the mushroom growth of popular news and comment about trials and punishments which occurred from the later seventeenth century It hypothesizes that the popular participation which had been a feature of courtroom proceedings before the mid eighteenth century was not stifled by lawyerization but rather partly relocated to the public sphere of the press partly because of some changes connected with the work of the lawyers Ranging from the early 1700s to the mid nineteenth century and taking account of criminal justice proceedings in Scotland as well as England the essays consider whether pamphlets newspapers ballads and crime fiction provided material for critical perceptions of criminal justice proceedings or alternatively helped to convey the official majesty intended to legitimize the law In so doing the volume opens up fascinating vistas upon the cultural history of Britain's legal system over the long eighteenth century

Neo-Liberalism and Austerity Peter Kelly, Jo Pike, 2016-12-26 This collection examines the relationships between a globalising neoliberal capitalism a post GFC environment of recession and austerity and the moral economies of young people's health and well being Contributors explore how in the second decade of the 21st century many young people in the OECD EU economies and in the developing economies of Asia Africa and Central and South America continue to be carrying a particularly heavy burden for many of the downstream effects of the 2008-09 Global Financial Crisis The authors explore the ways in which increasing local and global inequalities often have profound consequences for large populations of young people These consequences are not just related to marginalisation from education training and work They also include obstacles to their active participation in the civic life of their communities to their transitions to their sense of belonging The book examines the choices that are made or not made by governments businesses and individuals in relation to young people's education training work health and well being sexualities diets and bodies in the context of a crisis of neoliberalism and of austerity

The Skeleton Box Bryan Gruley, 2013-06-04 Mysterious break ins are plaguing the small town of Starvation Lake While elderly residents enjoy their weekly bingo night at St Valentine's Catholic Church someone is slipping into their homes to rifle through financial and personal files Oddly the intruder takes nothing yet the Bingo Night Burglaries leave the entire town uneasy Worry turns into panic when a break in escalates to murder Suddenly Gus Carpenter editor of the Pine County Pilot is forced to investigate the most difficult story of his life Not only is the victim his ex girlfriend Darlene's mother but her body was found in the home of Bea Carpenter Gus's own mother Suffering from worsening dementia and under the influence of sleeping pills Bea remembers little of the break in With the help of Luke Whistler a former Detroit Free Press reporter who came north looking for slower days and some old fashioned newspaper work Gus sets out to uncover the truth behind the murder But when the story leads him to a lockbox his mother has kept secret for years Gus doesn't realize that its contents could forever change his perception of Starvation Lake his own family and the value of the truth
