denaturalise the marginalization of women animals and indigenous peoples and hence expand the constrained discipline of IR By rethinking international relations to put ecological foundations first we are pushed to think and act with consideration of the long term sustainability of the global environment an ecological focus reminds us of our interdependence with our environment and all our neighbours The book raises conceptual and methodological issues that go directly to the heart of current critical engagements within the discipline of IR As such it will be of great interest to students and researchers in IR environmental politics and political theory

Quest for Eros Samuel B. Southwell, 2014-07-15 Students of Browning have long been puzzled by the discrepancies between the dramatic framework of Fifine and its symbolic development but these difficulties are resolved in Southwell's explication by a biographical hypothesis The powerful influence of the memory of his beloved wife Elizabeth involved Browning in a deep ambivalence and Fifine at the Fair represents his effort to escape the effects of the profound inhibitions associated with her memory while at the same time remaining loyal to it The poem is itself a flawed quest for Eros Browning s symbolic vision of sexuality as the central vitalizing force in human culture a supreme achievement of the poem is followed by a renunciation of the quest but the validity of the vision is explicitly affirmed and its promise recognized In Fifine at the Fair Browning s artistic powers are splendidly in evidence Southwell s fresh examination of the tensions within the poem offers new understanding of its power
