The Life of Belisarius Earl Philip Henry Stanhope Stanhope,1829 The Life of Belisarius Earl Philip Henry Stanhope Stanhope,Philip Henry Stanhope,2006 Count Belisarius Robert Graves,2014-03-06 This vigorous tale by the acclaimed author of I Claudius captures the sixth century fall of the Byzantine Empire as seen through the eyes of a servant Kirkus Reviews Threatened by invaders on all sides the Eastern Roman Empire of the sixth century fought to maintain its borders Leading its defense was the Byzantine general Belisarius a man who earned the grudging respect of his enemies and who rose to become Emperor Justinian's greatest military leader Loosely based on Procopius's History of the Justinian Wars and Secret History this novel tells the Belisarius's story through the eyes of Eugenius a eunuch and servant to the general's wife It presents a compelling portrait of a man bound by a strict code of honor and unrelenting loyalty to an emperor who is intelligent but flawed and whose decisions bring him to a tragic end Eminent historical novelist and classicist Robert Graves presents a vivid account of a time in history both dissolute and violent and demonstrates once again his mastery of this historical period A brilliant piece of scholarship Kirkus Reviews The scope of the book is massive encompassing religious controversy and cultural developments as well as military history yet throughout Graves succeeds in blending historical details with the development of his main characters Historical Novel Society The Life of Belisarius Philip Henry Stanhope,1829 Belisarius PETER. KEATING,2021-05-26 Success breeds enemies Constantinople 533 Emperor Justinian charges General Belisarius with a mission to bring Vandal held North Africa back into the imperial fold Set in the Golden Age of Byzantium this is Belisarius account of his early life in Middle Dacia his rise through the ranks of the Roman army epic battles with the Persians and the fight for control of lost Mediterranean lands But in Byzantine politics sometimes the enemy within is as dangerous as one on the field of battle

The Search of Belisarius Percy Stickney Grant,1907 The Life of Belisarius Lord Mahon,2018-04-12 At the beginning of the sixth century of the Christian era the empire of Constantinople was beset with enemies and sinking to decay The tide of barbarian invasion had lately overwhelmed one half of the ancient provinces of Rome and these conquests both by their effect and their example threatened speedy downfall to the rest The emperors became either hated from their reforms or despised from their incapacity and in either case their fate was the same Frequent insurrections wasted the resources of the state and deprived the government of all energy and enterprise while the armies turbulent and feeble had thrown off the restraints of military discipline It is the purpose of my narrative to show how the genius of one man averted these dangers and corrected these defects how the tottering empire was upheld how the successors of Augustus were enabled for a time to resume their former ascendancy and to wrest from the hands of the barbarians their most important possessions
