The Koreans Chae-ŭn Kim,1991 The Koreans Jae-un Kim,1991 研究在土著中国心理学 2019-10-01 Early Experiments and Social Personality Research Research in Personality Transformation and Modernity Research in Indigenous Chinese Psychology Frontiers in Cognitive Psychology Michael A. Vanchevsky,2006 Cognitive psychology deals with information processing and includes a variety of thinking processes including perception attention memory knowledge representation categorisation language problem solving reasoning and judgement It is also concerned with the structures and representations involved in cognition Cognitive psychology has significant applications of all areas of human endeavour It is also the subject of intensive study when applied to health and ageing in the absence of a significant health problem as well as education and human computer interaction Other examples are eyewitness memory autobiographical memory spatial cognition skill training suggestibility expertise and skilled behaviour Progress in Asian Social Psychology Kuo-Shu Yang,Kwang-Kuo Hwang,Paul Pedersen,Ikuo Daibo,2003-03-30 This volume presents ways of thinking dramatically different from mainstream psychology which is seen by many as primarily a product of Western civilization Asian social psychologists in this edited collection apply Asian perspectives to issues of major concern in their societies including parental beliefs about shame and moral socialization in Taiwan Hong Kong and the United States achievement motivation in Taiwan and the United States and the effects of school violence on the psychological adjustment of Korean adolescents Other chapters examine the role of social psychologists in Confucian societies and group dynamics in Japan The authors believe psychological research using an indigenous approach will enable Asian as well as non Asian psychologists to understand the cognitions and behaviors of Asian people more accurately Scholars and students interested in Asian psychology social cultural and cross cultural psychology will find this volume of interest Cosmopatriots Jeroen de Kloet,2007 This volume analyzes mediated articulations of cosmopolitanism in East and South East Asian popular cultures and arts Cosmopatriots navigate between a loyalty to the home country and a sense of longing for and belonging to the world Rather than searching for the truly globalized cosmopolitans the authors of this collection look for the postcolonial rooted cosmopolitans who insist on thinking and feeling simultaneously beyond and within the nation The cultural sites they discuss include Hong Kong Indonesia China Singapore the United States South Korea and Australia They show how media from both sides of the arbitrary divide between high art and popular culture including film literature the fine arts radio music television and mobile phones function as vehicles for the creation and expression of or reflection upon intersections between patriotism and cosmopolitanism Korea Journal ,1993 Indigenous and Cultural Psychology Uichol Kim,Kuo-Shu Yang,Kwang-Kuo Hwang,2006-09-03 It was once assumed that the bedrock concepts of psychology held true for all the world's peoples More recently post modern approaches to research have expanded on these Western models building a psychology that takes into account the sociopolitical historical religious ecological and other indigenous factors that make every culture

as well as every person as agents of their own actions Indigenous and Cultural Psychology surveys psychological and behavioral phenomena in native context in various developing and developed countries with particular focus on Asia An international team of 28 experts clarifies culture specific concepts such as paternalism and the Japanese concept of amae models integrative methods of study and dispels typical misconceptions about the field and its goals The results reflect culturally sound frames of reference while remaining rigorous systematic and verifiable These approaches provide a basis for the discovery of true psychological universals Among the topics featured Scientific and philosophical bases of indigenous psychology Comparisons of indigenous cultural and cross cultural psychologies Socialization parent child relationship and family The private and public self concepts from East Asia Europe and the Americas Interpersonal relationships concepts from East Asia Europe and the U S Factors promoting educational achievement and organizational effectiveness in Asia The growth and indigenization of psychology in developing and developed countries Are any values attitudes beliefs and traits universal Cross national comparisons The potential for indigenous psychology to lead to a global psychology With this book the editors have captured a growing field at a crucial stage in its evolution Indigenous and Cultural Psychology benefits students and researchers on twolevels offering groundbreaking findings on understudied concepts and signaling future directions in universal knowledge
