Canadian Plains Research Center, 2004. The more than 175 biographies in this volume together tell the story of writing in Saskatchewan. As David Carpenter notes in his Introduction to the volume The writers whose lives are told in these pages are part of an extraordinary cultural community that has touched and been touched by the people and landscape of this province. Poetry for the Earth Sara Dunn, Alan Scholefield, 1992. While the state of the environment is a very current issue passion and concern for the world around us is nearly as old as the world itself. Poetry for the Earth brings together a cross section of some of the most beautiful and haunting poetry ever written in tribute to or in mourning for our magnificent landscapes. Relating Carol Shields's Essays and Fiction Nora Foster Stovel, 2023-01-01. This collection of essays explores celebrated Canadian author Carol Shields's experimentation with the essay genre in relation to her fiction. Shields's essays clarify her iconoclastic approach to rules of narrative and illuminate her revisionist policies elucidating the development of her fiction both novels and stories as her writing gradually becomes more explicitly feminist as well as more daringly postmodernist. The dozen essays by the eminent Canadianists included in this edition throw fresh light on Shields's writing inviting us to read it with new eyes by revealing how her essays reflect and refract the brilliance of her fiction. These essays read Shields's fiction through the lens of her essays including those contained in the recent Giardini edition wherein the author explains the creative methodologies involved in her fiction and also offers specific advice to writers of fiction.
