The Jivanmukti-viveka Or the Path to Liberation in this Life Mādhava,1897 Stages of the Path and the Oral Transmission ,2022-12-20 A major contribution to the literature on Buddhist practice according to the Geluk school of Tibetan Buddhism from its foremost interpreter Although it was the last major school to emerge in the Tibetan Buddhist tradition the Geluk school has left an indelible mark on Buddhist thought and practice The intellectual and spiritual brilliance of its founder the great Tsongkhapa 1357 1419 has inspired generations of scholars and tantric yogis to place him at the heart of their daily meditative practice The Geluk tradition s close ties to the Dalai Lamas have also afforded it an outsized influence in all aspects of Tibetan life for centuries At its peak its combined monasteries boasted a population in the tens of thousands and its sway encompassed the religious landscape of Mongolia and much of Central Asia. This widespread religious activity fostered a rich literary tradition and fifteen seminal works are featured here representing four genres of that tradition. They include works on the stages of the path or lamrim, the genre for which the Geluk is most renowned; works on guru yoga centered around the core Geluk ritual Offering to the Guru Lama; Ch pa teachings from the unique oral transmission of Geluk mahamudra; meditation on the nature of mind; and instructions on the three essential points: what to practice in life, at death, and in the bardo. Your guide to these riches, Thupten Jinpa, maps out their historical context and spiritual significance in his extensive introduction.
