The Penguin Careers Guide:

The Penguin Careers Guide Philip Gray, 2013-09-26 The Penguin Careers Guide is the indispensable and practical source for anyone seeking careers information. Now fully revised and updated for its fourteenth edition, it contains in depth discussions of hundreds of possible careers with invaluable advice on education, training and employment issues. Whether you are just starting out after college or returning to work looking for a full or part time position, wondering how to set up your own business or finance your studies, this is the essential guide to point you in the right direction. The Penguin Careers Guide Jan Widmer, 2004 This latest edition of the highly successful and long established Penguin Careers Guide is an indispensable resource for anyone seeking careers information. It contains invaluable advice on education, training and employment issues, including new information about work life balance initiatives. More than three hundred careers are covered and for each entry there are details about required qualifications, the nature of the work, desirable personal attributes and training, as well as advice for late starters and those returning to work and directions on where to go for further information. This is the most authoritative and practical careers guide available. Shivananda Bhat, Mahabaleshwara Rao, Rekha D. Pai, 2014-07-15 With the advent of the information and communication technologies, traditional library activities are undergoing transformation in a big way. Modern library's collection includes a vast array of information resources: databases, electronic journals, e-books, digital images, institutional repositories, etc. To manage a modern library, library professionals need to have awareness and knowledge on management of electronic resources, federated and discovered tools for single click search, literature techniques, application of RFID and other technologies, user needs and knowledge on soft skills, etc. Keeping these perspectives and issues in mind, the National Conference on Management of Modern Libraries (NACML) was organized by SEARCH, The Health Science Library, in association with the department of Library and Information Science, Manipal University, Manipal. The main objective of the conference was to provide an opportunity to LIS professionals to explore the ways and means to manage the modern libraries where electronic resources are playing an important role in meeting the information needs of the users and to explore, discuss and share ideas and knowledge related to innovative modern library management systems to meet the needs of the changing environment. In five technical sessions under five different categories titled Technologies for Management, Best Practice in Modern Libraries, digital libraries and Role of Library Professionals in Management of Modern Libraries, held over the two days, total 51 papers were presented at the conference. Various challenges and issues related to management of modern libraries were discussed in the technical sessions and some of the authors shared the best practices of their libraries. The author highlighted the importance of digital libraries and stressed the needs of various skills to work in digital environment The papers presented in the conference have been edited and brought out in the form of a conference proceedings     The Tech Writer's Survival Guide Janet Van Wicklen,2009 Presents a comprehensive guide that includes advice on writing editing and researching plus a glossary and solutions to common problems encountered on the job     Career Counselling Robert Nathan,Linda Hill,2005-12-15 This new edition explains what career counselling actually is why people seek it and indicates the many contexts where it is used The text describes in detail the skills tools and techniques of career counselling useful to both professional career counsellors and those for whom career counselling is just part of their work     Making a Living While Making a Difference Melissa Everett,2007-11-01 Making a Living While Making a Difference is a timely and highly informative guide to a working life built on principled choices and an entrepreneurial attitude It s about greener enterprises and technologies socially responsible business innovative nonprofit work and reinventing government It s really about putting the pieces together with creativity and hope Working people everywhere are realizing that personal success is interconnected with healthy communities and the environment We are all looking for our unique creative edge with work that allows us to make an impact close to home and in the world The substantially revised third edition of Making a Living While Making a Difference acknowledges that while the path to finding a life s work that is satisfying sustainable and financially feasible is not easy there are simple steps to follow An empowering ten step program includes Paying attention to what you most care about Stabilizing your life with regard to time money and relationships Assessing your core aptitudes and attitudes Cultivating the entrepreneurial skills to create the workplace you want whether or not you are in business for yourself With dozens of rich personal stories and a thorough look at the options this is the comprehensive life and work guide for people who care about their communities and the planet Melissa Everett is a career counselor group facilitator and educator in the field of sustainable development and is the executive director of Sustainable Hudson Valley
